PARENTING PLAN

6. Cooperation. Petitioner and Respondent shall cooperate and work together in the best interests of their child and shall make joint decisions on matters impacting the child's health, education and welfare. The parties shall discuss all major decisions concerning the child, including health, education, and medical and dental treatment as well as therapy. Petitioner shall have the final decision-making authority if the parties disagree. However, that authority shall not be arbitrary and Respondent's concerns, ideas and input shall be provided due consideration before making the final decision. If

Respondent disagrees with a particular decision, then the parties will mediate the issue with a court-qualified domestic mediator before bringing the matter before the court.

Whichever parent has physical custody of the child shall make minor, day-to-day decisions.

7. Medical and Educational Records. Both parties shall have the right to treat their child for their emergency medical needs, and both parties shall have absolute and complete access to all medical and educational records of their child.

They also know that disrespecting the other parent is harmful to the child's sense of self, and, therefore, each parent agrees to refrain from behaviors that are disrespectful of the other parent. Instead, they will encourage the child's relationship with each parent and give the child clear permission to love and be proud of the other parent.

10. Respect. Petitioner and Respondent understand that their parenting styles may be different and that differences will enhance their child's growth. They agree to accept and respect each other's differences. They will be supportive of each other's parenting and positively encourage their child in the relationship with the other parent.

11. If parenting problems arise, Petitioner and Respondent agree that they will deal with the problem as parents, just between them.

12. Petitioner and Respondent shall respect each other's boundaries. They agree that their separate lives and private lives are no longer joined.

13. Petitioner and Respondent agree that if either of them enters a new significant relationship that may affect the child, each will inform the other parent of this new relationship. They further agree that they will each assist the child in understanding and adjusting to the new relationship.

14. Timesharing with Child. Petitioner and Respondent shall maintain a timesharing plan that allows each of them to participate meaningfully in all aspects of the life of their child. Time with the child will be shared equally between the parties in two-week increments, except where preempted by Holidays and Vacations.

15. The parties agree that the drop-off and pick-up for the child will take place, to the extent possible, at the child's day care and/or school to minimize the child's transitions.

16. Holidays and Vacations. Petitioner and Respondent shall fairly share holidays and other important days with their child. If Petitioner and Respondent are unable to agree on a fair sharing of holidays and other important days with their child, Petitioner and Respondent shall follow the provisions of Sec. 81-9-302, UCA with respect to holidays and other important days. If the parties cannot agree on a fair sharing of holiday time with the child, Respondent shall spend those holidays with the child that are normally reserved for the non-custodial parent and Petitioner shall spend those holidays with the child that are normally reserved for the custodial parent. Each parent shall be afforded two weeks of uninterrupted time to take a vacation with the child.

Each parent shall give the other thirty (30) days written notice as to the particular weeks requested for uninterrupted time with their child. For emergency purposes, whenever a child travels with a parent, the following information shall be provided to the other parent: (a) the itinerary of travel dates, (b) destinations, (c) places where the traveling parent can be reached and (d) the name and telephone number of an available third party who would be knowledgeable to the child's location. Should a conflict occur with respect to the sharing of holidays or extended time with their child, Petitioner and Respondent shall seek a resolution of their differences in mediation or with the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party prior to seeking a resolution in court.

17. Transportation. Petitioner and Respondent shall equitably share the responsibility of transporting the child from parent to parent.

Child support shall continue until the child reaches the age of 18 or graduates from high school during his normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs last. Child support shall be due on the first day of the month. Should the parties' incomes change substantially, a modified child support order shall issue that is consistent with the laws of the State of Utah.

19. Medical Insurance and Bills. Respondent shall provide medical insurance for the benefit of the minor child as long as medical insurance is available at a reasonable cost through his employment. The cost of all medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, or counseling expenses which are incurred for the benefit of the minor child, and which are not paid by the policy of health or dental insurance shall be shared equally between the parties. A parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. Petitioner and Respondent shall share equally the cost of the child's portion of the medical and/or dental insurance premium. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expense for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of child covered under the policy. If, at any point in time, a dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Respondent shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Petitioner shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child unless the parties agree otherwise. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child are not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but are covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child unless the parties agree otherwise.

20. Childcare and Childcare Expenses. These work-related childcare expenses shall be shared equally by Petitioner and Respondent. A parent who incurs childcare expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter at the request of the other parent. A parent shall begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. If the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, the parties may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

21. Tax Exemption. The Petitioner shall claim the minor child's tax benefits every year. Respondent must be current on his child support obligation of the tax year in order to exercise his assigned tax benefits, if not current with child support, then Petitioner shall claim the minor child for her tax benefit.
