Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
COUNTY OF WEBER, STATE OF UTAH, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

In the matter of the marriage of:

RYLIE STOVALL,

Petitioner,

DANIEL STOVALL,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No.: 264900390

Judge: Jason Nelson

Commissioner: Brandon Richards

Petitioner having filed a Verified Petition for Divorce against the Respondent; the Respondent having filed an Answer and the parties having reached a final resolution by filing a Stipulation resolving all issues; and the Court having previously entered its written Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law;

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED ADJUDGED

AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS

1. DIVORCE: That the parties shall be granted a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences the same to become final upon entry.
2. CHILD CUSTODY & PARENT-TIME: The parties shall share joint legal custody of the minor children. The parties shall discuss in good faith any major decisions affecting the minor children. If the parties cannot agree, they shall consult with an expert in the relevant field (physicians, teachers, etc.). If after consulting an expert the parties still do not agree, the parties shall first attend mediation. Neither party shall have final say. If the parties cannot agree after mediation, they shall bring the issue to court.

3. If either party does not respond to the other within forty-eight (48) hours of being notified, the party requesting the change may make the decision on their own.
4. Petitioner and Respondent shall share joint physical custody of the minor children.
5. Parent-time, holidays, and extended summer parent time shall be as the parties can agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent-time shall be pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-9-305.

- a. Respondent's parent time shall start the week of July 25, 2026, and the parties shall rotate week on week off from there and shall use school-to-school exchanges whenever possible.

- b. Respondent shall be designated the noncustodial parent solely for determining the holiday schedule and Petitioner the custodial.

6. The party exercising parent time shall be responsible for picking up the children for their parent time.

7. If either party relocates 150 miles or more from their current addresses, this would be the townhomes the parties have recently purchased, they must follow the notice provisions of Utah Code § 81-9-209.

8. Each party may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the minor child during their parent time. In an emergency situation, the parent with immediate custody shall inform the other parent as soon as reasonably practicable, once the emergency has been resolved.

9. CHILD SUPPORT: Respondent shall pay Petitioner child support in the amount of $549.00 each month, beginning August 1, 2026. The child support amount is based on a joint custody worksheet, with Petitioner's income at $6,326.00 per month and Respondent's income at $14,067.00 per month.

10. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-7-102(3), Respondent's child support payments shall be due one-half by the 5th and one half by the 20th of each month.

11. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-213, child support for a minor child shall terminate at the time: (i) the child becomes eighteen years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (ii) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code Annotated Title 80, Chapter 7, Emancipation.

12. CHILD CARE COSTS: If any work-related childcare is needed during the summer months, pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-209, both parties shall equally (50/50) share the said childcare expenses for the child.

13. If the parties require childcare during the months the children are in school, the party who requires childcare shall cover the cost in full.

14. If an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a party shall begin paying their share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense. If the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, that party may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

15. A party who incurs a childcare expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other party upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other party.

16. The party shall notify the other party of any change of child care provider or the monthly expense of child care within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.

17. EXTRACURRICULAR EXPENSES & SCHOOL FEES: The cost of school fees shall be split equally.

18. Any extracurriculars shall be agreed upon in writing. If the parties agree in writing, the reasonable fees for the extracurricular activity shall be split equally.

19. A party who incurs extracurricular activity or school fee expenses that are to be split shall provide the other party written verification of the cost within thirty (30) days. The other party shall pay their one-half of the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the written verification.

20. HEALTH INSURANCE: Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-6-208, the parties shall provide health insurance for the minor children so long as it is available to them at a reasonable cost. If Respondent has insurance available through his work, he shall place the children on his insurance before Petitioner's.

21. The parties shall equally (50/50) share the out-of-pocket costs and the premiums actually paid by a party for the minor child's portion of insurance.

22. If, at any point in time, a child is covered by the health insurance plans of both parents, the better health insurance plan shall be primary coverage for the child. If a parent remarries and the child is not covered by that parent's health insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the child.

23. The parties shall equally (50/50) share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the child, and actually paid by a party, including deductibles and co-payments.

24. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 15-4-6.7(1)(a), the parties shall maintain separate billing accounts with the child's health care providers whenever possible.

25. If separate billing accounts are not available, a party who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other party within thirty (30) days of payment. The other party shall pay their one-half of the expense within thirty (30) days after receiving the written verification

26. PERSONAL PROPERTY AND REAL PROPERTY: The parties jointly owned real property located at 766 W 2825 N, Pleasant View, Utah 84414. The parties have already sold the home and are moving out by August 2026. The proceeds have been split equally between the parties.

27. Both parties have, or are in the process of, buying new townhouses. These properties shall remain separate property free and clear of the other party now and in the future.

28. Petitioner shall be awarded the following, free and clear of any claim from Respondent, now or forever:

- a. Any bank accounts held solely in Petitioner's name;
- b. 2022 Jeep Wrangler;
- c. Any personal items and effects; and
- d. All items owned prior to the marriage and/or inherited.

29. Respondent shall be awarded the following, free and clear of any claim from Respondent, now or forever:

- a. Any bank accounts held solely in Respondent's name;
- b. 2025 Ford F250;
- c. Any personal items and effects; and
- d. All items owned prior to the marriage and/or inherited.

30. Any other joint personal property, furnishings, décor, etc. shall be divided as the parties can agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall return to mediation.

31. The parties have an HSA account that needs to be divided. Respondent tore his ACL during the marriage. Respondent shall first use the HSA for his ACL surgery and only his ACL related surgeries and aftercare. After this surgery and aftercare take place, any remaining funds that were in the account as of the date the decree is entered shall be divided equally between the parties.

32. The parties also own a camper which is in the process of being sold. The parties shall continue the process of selling the camper. Once sold, the parties shall equally divide the proceeds from the sale of the camper.

33. Both parties shall cooperate to effectuate the transfer of the joint personal property, including retitling, refinancing, etc. within ninety (90) days of the entry of the Decree of Divorce.

34. The parties also have an interest in Palace Elite. The parties shall split the remaining cost and retain their interest. The weeks and other benefits provided in the arrangement shall be divided equally between the parties. The parties shall share their proposed dates with the other party as soon as they possibly can.

35. DEBTS: The parties do not believe there are any joint debts. To the extent that joint debts exist, the parties shall equally divide the debt.

36. Pursuant to Utah Code Annotated § 81-4-406(3)(b), the parties shall notify respective creditors or obligees regarding the court's division of debts, obligations, or liabilities and regarding the parties' separate, current addresses.

37. Either party may file bankruptcy on the debts and obligations in their own name.

38. ALIMONY: Respondent shall pay Petitioner $50,000.00 within thirty (30) days of signing this Stipulation as a lump sum payment towards alimony. After this payment, neither party shall have any remaining claim to alimony now or in the future.

39. TAXES: The parties shall each be entitled to claim one minor child on their taxes each year. When there is only one minor child, Petitioner may claim him in odd years, and Respondent may claim him in even years.

40. RETIREMENT: Respondent's retirement account that will be divided equally among the parties. The cost of the QDRO shall be divided equally between the parties. Petitioner does not have a retirement account that needs to be divided.

41. ATTORNEY FEES AND COURT COSTS: Each party shall pay their own attorney fees and court costs related to this case.

42. MISCELLANEOUS: Each party shall be ordered to execute and deliver to the other the documents required to implement the provisions of the Decree of Divorce entered by the court.

43. The parties agree that this Stipulation and Agreement resolves all remaining issues of the parties' real property, financial accounts, vehicles, life insurance accounts, assets, and debts/obligations.

44. The parties shall sign all documents necessary to comply with the Decree of Divorce within sixty (60) days from the entry of the Decree. If a party fails to sign a document within sixty (60) days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document.
