Income: Respondent (Scott Charles Stevens) (Utah Code 81-6-203)

29. Scott Charles Stevens's gross monthly income for child support purposes is

$1417. Scott Charles Stevens's base child support amount using the sole custody calculation is $113. Scott Charles Stevens receives the following gross monthly income:

30. The adjusted gross monthly income for Scott Charles Stevens is $1417.

Child support (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2)

31. Treasa Danielle Stevens believes the guideline amount for child support is unjust, inappropriate, or not in the best interest of our children for the following reasons:

The reason(s) for deviation are It is the amount we agreed upon.

32. It is in the best interest of the children that Scott Charles Stevens be ordered to pay child support to Treasa Danielle Stevens as follows:

- a. $400.00 per month. This deviates from the Utah Uniform Child Support Guidelines.
- b. Unless the Court orders otherwise, support for each child ends when:
 - a child turns 18 or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or
 - a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the United States armed forces, or is emancipated (Utah Code 78A-6-801).

33. Once a child is no longer eligible to receive child support, the support amount for the eligible children should be recalculated using the child support worksheet (Utah Code Title 81, Chapter 6, Parts 1 and 2). The parties may not divide the base child support award by the number of children and subtract that amount from the prior child support amount.

34. The person ordered to receive child support can request mandatory income withholding (Utah Code 62A-11 parts 4 and 5). If support is past due, the State of Utah may take federal or state tax refunds or rebates and apply the amounts to the child support owed.

- a. Withheld income will be sent to the Office of Recovery Services (ORS) until all past-due support is paid. Child support payments will be sent to:
2540 Washington Blvd., 7th Floor Ogden, Utah 84401
unless ORS gives notice that payments should be sent elsewhere.

35. If ORS begins mandatory income withholding, child support is due on the first day of each month and will be past due on the first day of the next month.

36. The issue of past-due child support may be decided by future court or administrative action.

37. Scott Charles Stevens will pay any ORS fees. If Treasa Danielle Stevens is the ORS applicant and the fees are withheld from payments to Treasa Danielle Stevens, Scott Charles Stevens will reimburse Treasa Danielle Stevens.

38. The parties must notify each other within 30 days of any change in their income.

39. The Office of Recovery Services (<https://ors.utah.gov/>) provides services to individuals who are seeking assistance in the collection or enforcement of child support orders.

Dependent children for tax purposes

40. Treasa Danielle Stevens may claim the parties' children as dependents/exemptions for tax purposes.

Child health care (Utah Code 81-6-208)

41. The parties must provide health care coverage for the medical expenses of the dependent children. Health care coverage means coverage under which medical services are provided to a dependent child through: fee for service, a health maintenance organization, a preferred provider organization, any other type of private health insurance, or public health care coverage. Utah Code 81-6-101(14),

42. Both parents must maintain medical, hospital, and dental care insurance for the dependent children if it is available at reasonable cost. If medical insurance is not available at reasonable cost then both parents must ensure the children have health care coverage. This may require applying for public health care coverage, such as CHIP or Medicaid.

a. If, at any time, a dependent child is covered by the medical, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the coverage will be as follows:

- Treasa Danielle Stevens's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Scott Charles Stevens's insurance will be secondary coverage.

b. If a parent remarries and that parent's dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the coverage will be as follows:

- Treasa Danielle Stevens's spouse's insurance will be primary coverage.
- Scott Charles Stevens's spouse's insurance will be secondary coverage.

c. Both parties will equally share the out-of-pocket costs of the insurance premiums.

d. Both parties will equally share all uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses that are reasonable and necessary. This includes deductibles, co-insurance, and co-payments paid by a party for the dependent children.

e. The party who pays health care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and payment within 30 days.

f. If a party does not follow this order and provide written verification, they may not be able to receive credit for health care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

g. On or before January 2 of each year, the party ordered to maintain coverage must provide verification of coverage to the other party, and ORS, if they are involved.

h. If there is any change in coverage, within 30 days of the change the party ordered to maintain coverage must notify the other party and ORS, if they are involved.

Child care expenses (Utah Code 81-6-209)

43. Both parties will equally share all reasonable work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses.

a. The party who pays child care expenses must provide the other party written verification of the cost and identity of the child care provider. This must be done when a provider is first hired, and any time the other party asks for the information. The party incurring or paying child care expenses must notify the other party of any change of a child care provider or monthly expense. This must be done within 30 calendar days of the change.

b. The party not directly paying for child care must pay their share of child care expenses as soon as they receive verification of the expenses.

c. If a party does not follow the order and provide written verification, they may not receive credit for work, career, or occupational training-related child care expenses or recover the other party's share of the expenses.

Public assistance statement – Office of Recovery Services (ORS) (Utah Code 81-6-106(2)-(3))

44. Neither party has received or is receiving public assistance from the State of Utah.

Personal property (Utah Code Title 81, Chapters 1, 4, 6, and 9)

45. All personal property not addressed in the divorce should be divided as the parties have already divided it.

Debts

46. The parties are not aware of any debts from the marriage. If any debts exist, each debt will be the responsibility of the party who incurred the debt.

Real property

47. The parties do not have any real property that is marital property. The parties do not need a court order about real property.

Alimony

48. Neither party will pay alimony.

Retirement money

49. The parties do not need a court order about retirement money.

Duty to sign documents

50. The parties will sign all documents necessary to comply with the divorce decree within 60 days from entry of the decree. If a party fails to sign a document within 60 days, the other party may ask the court to appoint someone to sign the document. (Utah Rule of Civil Procedure 70)

Name after divorce

51. Treasa Danielle Stevens changed her name when the parties married. Treasa Danielle Stevens's name will be Treasa Danielle Taylor after the divorce.
