

Katie B. Dahl - #19500
298 24th Street, Suite 460
Ogden, UT 84401
Phone: (801) 436-5757
katie@stevensgailey.com
Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT, OGDEN DIVISION
WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

TREVOR CHAMBERLAIN STEVENS
Petitioner,

v.

TAITELY ELL OSTMANN
Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Case No. 264900989

Judge Reuben Renstrom
Commissioner Brandon Richards

Based upon the parties' Stipulation, filed with the court, and all other necessary documents on file in this matter, having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the court hereby ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

1. There is one (1) minor child to born as issue of the parties' relationship to wit.
 - a. M.S., born July 30, 2024
2. The parties shall be granted joint legal and joint physical custody of the minor child.
 - a. Joint Custody should be as parents agree. If parents cannot agree, custody should be consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305.
 - i. Petitioner will have 182 overnights annually with the minor child.

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 1 of 11

- ii. Respondent will have 183 overnights annually with the minor child.
- 2. Unless the parents agree otherwise and subject to a holiday equal parent time schedule, the parent-time schedule is as follows:
 - a. Respondent shall exercise parent-time starting Sunday at 7 p.m., ending Thursday at 6 p.m..
 - b. Petitioner shall exercise parent-time starting Thursday at 6 p.m., ending Sunday at 7 p.m..
 - c. Petitioner shall receive 2 additional weeks of uninterrupted parent time during the summer to make up for time lost during the school year.
- 3. The parents will share holiday and extend time as they agree, if they cannot agree they will follow the schedule outlined in Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-304.
 - a. Petitioner will be the non-custodial parent for purposes of determining holiday and extended time only.
- 4. Each year, a parent may exercise uninterrupted parent-time during the summer when school is not in session.
 - a. Petitioner will be granted 4 weeks of uninterrupted parent time to make-up for lost parent time pursuant to the school-year parent time schedule.
 - b. Respondent will be granted 2 weeks of uninterrupted parent time consistent with Utah Code Ann. § 81-9-305.

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 2 of 11

- c. Uninterrupted parent time designations must be made no later than May 1.
 - i. In even years, Father has priority in making designation.
 - ii. In odd years, Mother has priority in making designation.
 - iii. The designation by the parent with priority cannot be overridden.
 - d. A parent shall make a designation at least 30 days before the day on which the designated period begins.
 - e. The consecutive weeks described take precedence over all holidays except for Mother's Day and Father's Day.
5. The parents will discuss all major decisions regarding the education, medical care, and religious upbringing of the child. They will share their thoughts on the issue and consider one another's input. The parents will consider the best interests of the child when making decisions.
6. After a full discussion, if they cannot agree, they will meet together with a professional in the field of the dispute, if practicable. If parties can still not agree, they may seek intervention by the court.
7. The parties both agree that quality parent time is important to each party and the minor child. The parties agree to reevaluate the parent time schedule prior to the minor child entering kindergarten. The parent-time schedule will be as parties agree. If parties cannot agree they will attend mediation prior to any changes being made and prior to bringing it before court for review.

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 3 of 11

8. Neither parent is awarded presumptive decision making.
9. The parent-time agreement shall be utilized to maximize the continuity and stability of the parties' minor child's life.
10. All transportation of the minor child should be as the parties agree. If they cannot agree the party ending their parent time will be solely responsible for dropping off the minor child with the other party. The parties may utilize third parties known to the child for pickup and drop off of the minor child.
11. If due to emergency circumstances a parent will be late or is unable to be present to pick up or deliver the child, then that parent shall notify the other as soon as possible to advise them and make appropriate alternate arrangements.
12. Neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-order.
13. Each parent shall make the day-to-day decisions concerning the minor child while the minor child is in the care of such parent.
14. The parties shall discuss all major decisions regarding the minor child including but not limited to all decisions regarding school involvement and activities, extracurricular activities, religious upbringing, and medical decisions. If the parties are unable to agree, then they will execute the following dispute resolution program:
 - a. Both parents will have full access to all of the minor child's school records and will be listed as a parent who has access to the minor child at school and may check her out, as well as be listed as an emergency contact.

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 4 of 11

b. Regarding medical and educational decisions, the parties will first discuss the issue. If the parties still cannot agree they will attend mediation to resolve their dispute. If mediation is unsuccessful, parties have the right to bring the issue to court for review.

c. This provision in no way limits either parties right to take the minor child to day to day to appointments or to treat her for emergency care. Both parties can take her in for emergency care. Should either party take the minor child for a doctor's visit the other party should be immediately notified at the time of scheduling of the appointment or if it an emergency in route.

d. Regarding extracurricular activities, the parties will share equally in the cost of all mutually agreed extracurricular activities, and ensure the minor child regularly attend such agreed upon activities during their respective parent-time. If a party wishes to enroll the minor child in an extracurricular activity that the other parent does not agrees to, they may do so at their sole expense and the other parent will have no obligation to have the minor child attend that activity during their own parent-time with the minor child.

15. Both parties shall have access to all of the minor child's school records, medical records, extracurricular records, government records, and so forth.

16. Both parents shall have unlimited access to the minor child's schools, including full access to all school reports, homework, teachers, and other school staff. It is expected that both parents will complete all assignments with the minor child is with them during their time

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 5 of 11

17. Neither parent will bar, interfere with, or prevent the other parent's participation or the minor child's activities. Each parent shall bear responsibility to introduce himself/herself to coaches, teachers, leaders of the child's activities in order to facilitate relationships between herself/himself and the other adults with whom the child interacts in these settings. The parent who initially becomes familiar with the adults associated with the child's activities specifically shall inform such adult of each of the child's parents and stepparents. In sum, no one parent shall be primarily responsible to ensure the other parent's participation in important events or relationships with individuals in the child's life and, equivalently and simultaneously, that neither parent prevent the other from participating in the same

18. Each parent shall provide the other with a current address and telephone number within 24 hours of any change

19. Each parent shall enjoy liberal telephone, skype, video conference, Email, letters, or other alternative forms of contact with the minor child at reasonable times and places.

20. In the event either parent moves more than 150 miles from their current location, or out of the state of Utah, the parties agree they will give the other at least 60 days written notice. The parties will meet to discuss parent time and if they cannot agree either party may seek intervention by the court.

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 6 of 11

21. Both parties should be barred from disparaging, harassing, harming, threatening to harm, stalking, tracking, or intimidating the other party or the minor child. Neither party will make any negative comments about the other person on publicly on social media or the internet. The parties will not make negative comments about the other party in front of the minor child or allow third parties to do so in front of the minor child.

22. The parties will stop any access they have to the other parties' e-mails, and other electronic accounts and other passwords and never use or access them again, including monitoring their private calendar.

23. Child support should be set pursuant to statute as set forth in Utah Code Ann. § 81-6-206, utilizing the current income of the parties and a joint custody worksheet.

- a. Petitioner earns a gross income of $7250.00 per month
- b. Respondent earns a gross income of $2500.00 per month.
- c. Petitioner should pay $257.00 monthly in child support to Respondent.

24. The State of Utah Office of Recovery Services is entitled to collect child support if not paid by a party.

25. Alimony should not be awarded to either party. Neither party is entitled to back or future Alimony.

26. The parties should provide health and dental insurance coverage on behalf of the minor child so long as it is available through employment at a reasonable cost through their employer. The parties should share equally the out-of-pocket costs for the minor child's portion of the insurance premiums, per Utah Code Ann. §81-6-208.

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 7 of 11

- a. Petitioner will carry the minor child on his health insurance.
- b. Respondent shall reimburse Petitioner for one half of the insurance premium for the minor child.

27. The parties shall equally share the cost of all medical, dental, orthodontic, optical, pharmaceutical, counseling, therapeutic co-pay and deductible expenses that are incurred on behalf of the minor child and not covered by insurance.

- a. A parent who incurs medical expenses will provide to the other parent written verification of the cost within thirty (30) days of payment. Any payment shall be made directly to the provider.
- b. All daycare expenses incurred on behalf of the minor child shall be paid by the parent who incurred the expense.

28. NOTICE TO MEDICAL EXPENSE CREDITORS UPON ENTRY OF THE DECREE OF PATERNITY: Pursuant to Utah Code §15-4-6.7, 81-3-105, and 81-6-208, when a court order has been entered providing for payment of medical expenses of a minor child pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-204, 81-6-202, or 81-6-208 or an administrative order under § 26B-9-224, a provider who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by the parent under the order. Therefore, each party should:

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 8 of 11

a. Send a copy of the court order referenced above to a provider of Minor Child's particular medical expense;

i. Notify the provider of that party's current address;

ii. Inform the provider that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order; and,

iii. Inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under § 70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14 Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

29. Parties should equally share in the cost of the child's school related expenses.

These expenses should be paid directly to the school by both parties.

30. The home located at 250 North 2nd West, Downey, Idaho, 83234, purchased by Petitioner prior to the marriage, is Petitioner's sole and separate property and Respondent has no interest therein.

31. During the course of the marriage, the parties have acquired various items of personal property.

32. Petitioner should be awarded property as follows:

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 9 of 11

- a. 2017 Honda CRV and any debts attached thereto.
 - b. 2010 Toyota Tundra and any debts attached thereto.
 - c. Any property currently in his possession.
- 33. Respondent should be awarded personal property as follows
- a. Any property currently in her possession.
- 34. Marital property in the remaining in the home shall be divided as parties agree.
- a. If parties cannot agree, the property shall be sold and the earnings split equally.
- 35. Each party shall be responsible for any and all debts in their own name. There are no joint/marital debts to divide.
- 36. Each party should be responsible for their own health insurance coverage at their own cost.
- 37. Each party should be responsible for their own automobile insurance at their own cost.
- 38. Beginning with the 2026 tax year parties should file taxes separately.
- 39. Petitioner is awarded tax benefits for the minor child on even tax years.
- 40. Respondent is awarded tax benefits for the minor child on odd tax years.
- 41. Each party should be awarded their own respective bank accounts. The parties have no joint bank accounts

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 10 of 11

42. Each party should be awarded their own respective retirement/investment accounts.

43. Each party shall pay their own respective attorneys fees.

44. Parties shall complete the divorce education course and parenting course as required by the court and provide proof of such completion to the court.

a. <https://extension.usu.edu/divorce/>

45. The parties shall not harass, malign, threaten, or defame the other. The parties should not interfere with the lives or relationships of the other, or with family members of the other party.

46. The parties are mutually restrained from disparaging one another to the minor child, alienating, or otherwise interfering with the other's relationship with the minor child; or allowing third parties to do so in the presence of the minor child.

47. The parties shall not involve the minor child in the legal disputes of the parties, financial matters, parent time or custody. The parties shall not attempt to influence the minor child or the minor child's preference(s) with respect to issues of custody or parent time either by reward, punishment, or guilt.

48. Each party should be ordered to execute and deliver to the other party any document necessary to implement the provisions of the final decree of divorce entered by this Court.

49. Parties have had ample opportunity to consult with and review this Stipulation with any attorney of their choosing.

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 11 of 11

ENTERED BY THE COURT ON THE DATE AS INDICATED BY THE COURT'S

SEAL AT THE TOP OF THE FIRST PAGE

Approved as to form:

/s/ Taitely Ostmann (with permission on 7/22/26 at 12:44 pm)

Taitely Ostmann

Respondent

CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

I certify that on this 22nd day of July, 2026, I caused a true and correct copy of the foregoing proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law to be e-mailed to Respondent:

Taitely Ostmann

taieostmann@gmail.com

/s/ Katie B. Dahl

Stevens and Ostmann

Decree of Divorce

Page 12 of 11