IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, OGDEN DEPARTMENT IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH

In the Matter of the Marriage of:

DECREE OF DIVORCE

CALLIE JEAN KIRK,

And

CORY CHAD KIRK.

Civil No. 254901401

Judge Jason Nelson

Commissioner Brandon Richards

Pursuant to the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement (filed April 1, 2026) and the Supplemental Stipulation (filed August 4, 2026), a judgment for a divorce can be entered. The court, having reviewed the pleadings on file herein, and having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, does now ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE as follows:

1. The parties are awarded a Decree of Divorce on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final upon entry by the court clerk.

PARENTING PLAN

2. Custody/Parent time. The parties are awarded joint physical custody of their minor child. Parent-time with the child shall be at reasonable times and places as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, the parties' reasonable rights of parent time shall be defined as follows:

a. School Year.

- i. During the school year, Father's parent time shall occur every weekend beginning Friday after school and shall end on Sunday at 7pm.
- ii. If school is not in session on Friday, the exchange shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall exchange the child at 10 a.m.
- iii. All other parent time is awarded to Mother except as addressed herein.

b. Summertime.

- i. During the summer break, the parties shall have parent time such that Father exercises 10 consecutive days and Mother exercises 2 consecutive days in a 12-day period.
- ii. Mother may exercise a midweek visit one time per week from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. and may exercise this visit during Father's 10 day period. If the parties cannot otherwise agree, this will occur on the fifth day of Father's 10 consecutive days.
- iii. Each party will receive two-uninterrupted weeks of extended parent time in the summer, which extended parent time will override the 12-day rotation identified above.

3. Notification of Extended Time: Both parents shall provide notification of extended parent-time or vacation weeks, with the child by May 1 each year for first option parent and May 15 for second option parent. Father shall have first choice of extended time in odd numbered years and Mother shall have first choice of extended time in even numbered years. If notification is not provided timely the complying parent may determine the schedule for extended parent-time for the non-complying parent. Once the parent time schedule is set, Mother will elect her midweek visit days.

4. Holidays:

- a. The holidays shall be as the parties agree. If the parties cannot agree the holidays will be according to the chart below as follows:

Mother	Mother	Mother's Day (1) Holiday begins at 7 p.m. on the day before Mother's Day. (2) Holiday ends on Mother's Day at 7 p.m.

5. Parent Time Precedence: The following order of precedence shall be applied when determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:

- a. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;

- b. the holiday schedule for the minor child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the minor child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;
- c. the holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or the minor child's birthday;
- d. extended parent-time; and
- e. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.
- f. A parent exercising parent-time for the minor child's birthday may bring other siblings along for the minor child's birthday.

6. Legal Custody: The parties shall have joint legal custody. Both parties will have access to the child's school, medical, church, and other records and will include the other party as the parent on such records. The major decisions concerning their child's general welfare, education, discretionary medical treatment, and religious training shall be mutually agreed to by both parties. In the event, the parties do not mutually agree regarding the child, the parties will first discuss the issue in good faith and then seek the advice of an expert in the field. If necessary, the parties shall obtain a second expert opinion, and both parties shall participate in and cooperate with that process in good faith. If they cannot come to an agreement, the parties will mediate. If they are unable to come to a resolution in mediation, Mother shall have final say. If Father disagrees with Mother's decision, he can bring the issue before the court. The parties will equally share in the costs of the steps of this dispute resolution process. Both parties shall have the authority to make routine decisions regarding the child's day-to-day activities when the child is in his or her care.

- a. Medical. Emergency and sick care shall be attended immediately by the parent who is exercising the parent time. The parent shall notify the other parent within 30 minutes for emergency or same day care. The parent shall notify the other parent within 24 hours of scheduling for any regular medical or dental appointment, and the parent who has the parent time shall attend the appointment. If it is emergency care, both parents shall be able to attend the care.

b. Separate Accounts. According to Utah Code Annotated §15-4-6.7 each party will elect for dental, medical and school expenses to be created in separate accounts prior to service being initiated.

c. Educational Plan.

i. The minor child shall attend school as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall proceed through the standard dispute resolution process outlined in the Legal Custody section herein with mediation taking place no later than 14 days prior to the end of the enrollment period for school outside of unforeseen circumstances. If the parties are unable to resolve the issue in mediation, Mother's address shall be used for purposes of school choice.

ii. The parties agree that the minor child shall attend Bates Elementary school for the 2026-2027 school year until Mother moves or until the parties otherwise agree in writing.

iii. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to obtain a Section 504 Plan for the minor child and to implement and utilize that plan as needed.

iv. Both parties shall be listed on school records. Both parties shall be listed for any emails given by teachers or respective school administrators.

d. Religion. If the minor child attends church during a party's parent time, that parent shall notify the other parent of their attendance.

e. Therapy. The child shall attend therapy until released by the therapist or mutually agreed upon by the parties. The parties shall participate in therapy as recommended by the therapist. Each party shall pay one-half of the therapy bill directly to the therapist. If payment to the provider is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. The parties will follow the recommendations of the child's therapist. Any communication to or from the therapist shall be emailed to both parties. Any emails or parent communication that the therapist charges for shall be paid by the parent who initiates the contact.

f. Changing Parent-Time. There shall be no changes to the parent-time schedules as designated herein, unless the parent with the parent-time makes an agreement in writing through Our Family Wizard. The parents shall not talk to the child about any change in parent-time prior to a written agreement between the parties of the change.

7. Relocation: If either party moves more than 150 miles from the other parent, the parties will be bound by the 60-day notice requirements of Utah Code Annotated §81-9-209.

8. Our Family Wizard: The parties will utilize Our Family Wizard to communicate in writing and calendar and exchange receipts. The parties will each pay their respective costs for Our Family Wizard. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. The parties will use text or phone contact only for emergencies and changes on the day of the exchange. The parties will not use Our Family Wizard to harass or annoy the other parent. The communication shall be respectful, civil, and limited to issues regarding the child.

9. Telephone and Virtual Contact with Child:

- a. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the child, in the form of mail and phone privileges and virtual parent-time if the equipment is reasonably available. Telephone contact shall be at reasonable hours and for a reasonable duration on Our Family Wizard or as the parties may agree. The child shall be able to contact the parents at any time.
- b. Parents shall have no set virtual parent time schedule.

10. Travel:

- a. When the child travels with either parent out of State, all of the following will be provided to the other parent at least 24 hours prior to departure or 21 days for international travel:

 - i. An itinerary of travel dates;
 - ii. Destination;
 - iii. Places where the child or traveling parent can be reached;
 - iv. And, the name and telephone number of an available third person who would be knowledgeable of the child's location.
- b. Both parties shall have unfettered access to the child's passports and be able to travel on their respective parent time or other mutually agreed upon times. All out of country travel shall be done through notarized documentation between the parties and consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11. Change of Information: Each parent shall provide the other with the parent's current address and telephone number, email address, and other virtual parent-time access information within 24 hours of any change.

12. Notification of Child's Events: The parties shall take affirmative steps to share school and activity information concerning their child with each other on a frequent basis that is not available through the school calendar or school email. The parties shall notify each other of any school programs, extracurricular activities and sporting events their child may be involved in that is not available online or through emails of the program. Placing information on the Our Family Wizard calendar shall constitute notice.

13. Special Events: Special consideration shall be given by each parent to make the child available to attend family functions, including funerals and weddings, and other significant events in the life of the child or in the life of either parent which may inadvertently conflict with the visitation schedule.

14. Mutual Restraining.

a. Both parties shall be supportive of the other party's role as a parent. Neither parent shall attempt to alienate the child in any way from the other parent. Both parents have an affirmative duty to co-parent the child in a way that promotes their best interest.

b. Both parties are restrained from discussing adult issues in front of the child or allowing a third party to do so. The parties are also restrained from discussing the child's relationship with the other parent in front of or with the child, or from questioning, interrogating, or otherwise "pumping" the child for information regarding what occurs when the child is with the other parent and from allowing any other person to do so.

c. The parties will not use their child to deliver messages. Thus, the parents will not discuss any issues regarding co-parenting in front of the child or at any child's activity.

- d. The parties shall not make disparaging remarks to one another or to their child about one another or in the child's presence, either verbally, in writing or otherwise. Both parties are mutually restrained from harassing, stalking or threatening the other party.
- e. The parties shall not go to the other parties' place of employment or residence.
- f. If the parties are attending the same event to support their minor child, they shall not be in direct intentional contact during the event.
- g. Both parties are restrained from using the likeness, image or credit of the other party for any purpose.
- h. Both parties are mutually restrained from allowing third parties to do what they themselves are prohibited from doing and shall have the affirmative duty to use his or her best efforts to prevent third parties from such violations or shall remove the minor child from such circumstances.

15. Protective Order Modification: Paragraphs 6 and 8 of the Protective Order in case number 254901151 will be modified to include the following language: The parties may attend and participate in their son's school and extracurricular events, activities, practices, games etc. so long as there is no direct, intentional interaction between them.

16. First Right of Refusal: Each parent will have first option to provide care for the child over any other third party if the parent responsible for the child is not available overnight during their custodial time and the other parent is personally available and willing to provide the care and the transportation. Sleepovers for the child when the parent is available and in town shall not trigger the first right of refusal.

17. Hospitalization: If either party is hospitalized, the other parent shall care for the minor child during the period of hospitalization. The parent providing care shall ensure that the minor child is able to visit with the hospitalized parent when appropriate and consistent with medical advice. The parties shall make a good faith effort to facilitate the child's continued relationship and communication with the hospitalized parent during that time.

18. Limitations:

- a. The parties shall not use corporal punishment with the minor child.
- b. The people in the respective households and the parties will not use illegal drugs, prescription drugs in a non-prescribed manner or alcohol in excess while they are exercising parent-time.
- c. The parties shall ensure that all adult substances are securely locked away and kept inaccessible to the minor child.
- d. The parties when exercising parent time are constrained from allowing the minor child to be in the presence of any other person who the party suspects or have reason to suspect may be under the influence of alcohol in excess, illegal drugs, or non-prescribed drugs.

19. Dispute Resolution: If the parties have any future disagreement pertaining to their child generally or over the terms or implementation of this agreement, they shall seek the assistance of a mutually agreed upon third party or mediator and split the cost thereof before either of the parties initiates legal action. The parties both agree, however, that either of the parties may seek emergency relief from the court in the future should an emergency arise which would make formal negotiation not practical. This shall not apply to enforcement actions.

20. Activity Costs: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket amount incurred for any mutually agreed-upon in writing extracurricular activities that the minor child may be involved in. The parties shall pay the providers directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the extracurricular activity out-of-pocket costs shall submit to the other party verification of the incurred expense, such as a receipt or an invoice, within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receiving the verification of incurred expenses. A party who incurs an expense for a child's extra-curricular activity without receiving prior consent from the other parent shall be solely responsible for that expense. If a parent enrolls a child in an activity without the other parent's consent, the activity shall not infringe on the other parent's parent-time and the enrolling parent shall pay the full cost. Both parents shall be able to attend all of the child's extra-curricular activities and the parent who signs up the child shall put the event on the Our Family Wizard Calendar within 24 hours of receiving the calendar or any change.

21. School Fees: Each party shall be ordered to assume and be responsible for fifty percent (50%) of any out-of-pocket school expenses (i.e. registration, books, required supplies, lab fees, etc.) incurred during the time leading up to and including high school. This shall not include private school tuition. The parties shall pay the school directly if possible. If it is not possible, the party incurring the out-of-pocket school expense shall submit to the other party an invoice, bill, receipt, or verification of the incurred expense within thirty (30) days of payment or receiving the same and shall be reimbursed by the other party within thirty (30) days of receipt of those school expense invoices, bills, receipts, and/or verification.

22. Transportation for the Child: The parties will utilize school-to-school exchanges when school is in session. If school to school exchanges are not possible because school is not in session, the parties will meet at a secure, neutral, meeting point. If the parties cannot agree on a meeting point, they shall meet at the North Salt Lake City Hall.

23. Third Party Transportation: A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by a parent, may transport the child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual.

24. Additional Provisions:

- a. The parties agree that, unless otherwise specifically stated herein, pick up and drop off times (other than at school on Fridays when school is in session) will take place at 10am and 7pm respectively, unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties or stated herein.
- b. The parties agree that all parent time follows the calendar according to the school district in which the child is enrolled, with is currently based upon Mother's address.
- c. The parties agree that the school year begins (and summer concludes) at 7pm the night before the first day of school.
- d. The parties agree that summer begins at the time school lets out on the last day of school, at which time Father's first 10-day block would begin, followed by Mother's 2 days, on an ongoing rotation.

FINANCIAL ITEMS AND ASSET DISTRIBUTION

25. Child Support: Child Support shall be calculated as according to Utah Code Annotated §81-6-107 et seq. Mother's gross monthly income is $2,087 per month. Father's imputed gross monthly income is $1,265 per month. Mother has 209 overnights and Father has 156 overnights for the purpose of child support calculation on the Joint Physical Custody Worksheet, which calculates to Father owing Mother $55.00 per month in child support. Child support will be paid half on the 5th and half on the 20th of each month.

- a. Father's support of the minor child should be continued until said child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later.
- b. The father will pay his monthly child support directly to the mother by way of check, Venmo or direct deposit to her bank account.

26. Medical/Dental Expenses: The party who can obtain the best coverage at the most reasonable cost will obtain insurance for the medical expenses of the minor child in accordance with U.C.A. §81-6-208. Mother is currently providing said insurance.

- a. Each parent shall share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance. The child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid. The premium expenses for the child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of child in the instant case. This amount shall be automatically deducted from or added to the child support paid or owed.
- b. Each parent shall share equally all reasonable and necessary uninsured medical, dental, orthodontia, eye care, counseling, prescriptions, deductibles, and copayments, incurred for the dependent child and actually paid by the parents.
- c. The parent who incurs medical and dental expenses may provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical and dental expenses to the other parent within 30 days of payment. The other parent will remit payment within 30 days of receipt of the verification. If neither party is able to secure said insurance at a reasonable cost, each party shall be responsible for the payment of one-half of all reasonable and necessary medical and dental expenses for the minor child as indicated.

d. If, at any point in time, the dependent child is covered by the health, hospital, or dental insurance plans of both parents, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Mother shall be primary coverage for the dependent child and the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of Father shall be secondary coverage for the dependent child. If a parent remarries and his or her dependent child is not covered by that parent's health, hospital, or dental insurance plan but is covered by a step-parent's plan, the health, hospital, or dental insurance plan of the step-parent shall be treated as if it is the plan of the remarried parent and shall retain the same designation as the primary or secondary plan of the dependent child.

e. Double coverage shall not be required. However, if the parties have double coverage for insurance, each party shall pay their own insurance policy premium with no compensation from the other party.

f. Verification of health insurance coverage shall be provided within 7 days of request. The parties shall notify the other in event of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within fifteen calendar days of the date he or she knows of the change.

27. Childcare Expenses: The parties shall adopt Utah Code Annotated §81-6-209, and each parent shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses for the minor child. The parties will use family at no cost if available.

28. Dependency exemption: The parties will share the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child as follows:

a. The parties will alternate the dependency exemption/tax credit for the minor child. Mother will be entitled to claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for odd-numbered tax years, and Father will claim the minor child as a dependency exemption/tax credit for even-numbered tax years.

29. Taxes: The parties will file joint tax returns for 2025. The parties will equally share in any cost of preparation of taxes. The parties will equally share any tax refund or tax liability.

30. Real Property: The parties do not presently own an interest in real property.

31. Cellphone Plan: The parties shall cooperate to remove Mother from Father's cellphone plan on or before April 30, 2026. Mother is awarded her cellphone and her cellphone number.

32. Personal Property: During the course of the marriage relationship, the parties have acquired personal property. Said personal property of the parties shall be distributed such that the person receiving the item shall be responsible for any associated debt with the item. The division shall be as follows:

Item Description:	Awarded to:
2024 Subaru Ascent	Mother
1999 Jeep Wrangler	Father
Popup Trailer	Father
1969 VW Bus	Father
Boat	Father

a. Other items not listed herein shall be divided equitably between the parties as the parties may agree. If the parties cannot agree, they shall return to mediation.

33. Debts: The parties acquired debts during the marriage. Each party will assume, indemnify, and hold the other harmless from liability on, the following debts:

Debt Description:	Obligation of:
Debt in Father's Name	Father
Debt in Mother's Name	Mother

a. Accumulation of Debt: Neither party will incur any additional liability on joint credit cards.

b. Other Debts: The parties are aware of no other joint debts not otherwise addressed in this agreement and each shall pay any and all separate debts in their own names. Should other joint debts be later discovered, it is just and proper that the person responsible for incurring the debt shall be responsible for paying it. Furthermore, the parties shall hold the other harmless in the event of their refusal in payment of any joint obligation.

c. Delinquency in Payments: If either party is obligated on a joint-secured debt, the payment of that debt must remain current. In the event that a payment is not paid in a timely manner, the secured asset must be placed immediately on the market for sale in order to protect the joint debtors. A party who makes payment on a delinquent debt in order to protect his or her credit rating, may seek reimbursement of the payment of that debt in addition to interest and attorney's fees from the other party.

34. Checking And Saving Accounts: Each party will be awarded monies in their own separate checking and savings accounts. The joint accounts shall be closed within 14 days of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement.

35. Retirement Accounts: The parties have no retirement accounts.

36. Business Interest:

a. Mother shall be awarded 100% of the business interest in Iraid Arts LLC and all associated income, assets, intellectual property, debts, liability, and tax consequences.

b. Father shall be awarded 100% of the business interest in Booger D and all associated income, assets, intellectual property, debts, liability, and tax consequences excluding any recordings where Mother appears or participates. If Father wishes to use any recording that includes Mother for any purpose, he shall first discuss the proposed use with Mother, and the parties shall confer regarding royalties or any other applicable terms related to publication, marketing, or commercialization. Mother shall transfer to Father, within 7 days of the date of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement, all passwords, account access, and other information reasonably necessary for Father to assume sole control of Booger D.

c. If Mother wishes to use any recording that includes Father for any purpose, she shall first discuss the proposed use with Father, and the parties shall confer regarding royalties or any other applicable terms related to publication, marketing, or commercialization.

37. Name: Callie Jean Kirk will have the option of restoring her name to Callie Jean Thompson.

38. Alimony: Neither party shall be awarded alimony. Both parties waive and relinquish the right to receive alimony from the other both now and in the future.

39. Custodial Parent for Purposes of Social Security: For purposes of Social Security Benefits, Mother shall be deemed the custodial parent.

40. Deeds and Titles: Both parties shall sign whatever documents are necessary to transfer title and quit claim deeds or any other documents necessary that are outlined in the Decree of Divorce and are necessary to implement the Decree of Divorce.

41. Divorce Education: The parties will take the Divorce Education Class and Divorce Orientation Class within 30 days of the date of the Stipulation and Settlement Agreement being signed.

42. Attorney's Fees and Costs: Each party shall be ordered to assume his or her own costs and attorney's fees incurred in this action.
