PRIVATE RECORD

Attorneys for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, STATE OF UTAH
IN AND FOR WEBER COUNTY, OGDEN DEPARTMENT

In the Matter of the Marriage of ROBIN ANGELA WHITE, Petitioner, and MICAHA LEVI WHITE, Respondent.	DECREE OF DIVORCE CIVIL NO. 264901246 JUDGE HALL COMMISSIONER WILSON

Petitioner, Robin Angela White (hereinafter referred to as “Robin”), and Respondent, Micah Levi White (hereinafter referred to as “Micah”) (collectively the “parties”), reached a final agreement by signing a Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement on July 21, 2026, on file with the Court. The Court, having reviewed the file and being familiar with the pleadings and other documents therein, and having reviewed the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement signed by both parties, entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law and being otherwise fully advised:

HEREBY ORDERS, ADJUDGES, and DECREES as follows:

Divorce.

1. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce upon the grounds of irreconcilable differences, the same to become final and absolute upon signing and entry by the Court.

Notification of Vacations.

12. Both parents shall provide notification of vacations with the minor Children.
13. In odd years, Robin shall provide notice by January 1, and Micah shall provide notice by January 15.
14. In even years, Micah shall provide notice by January 1, and Robin shall provide notice by January 15.
15. If there is a conflict between the two schedules, Robin's choice shall control in odd years and Micah's choice shall control in even years.
16. If a priority parent has not given notice by January 1, then the other parent shall have priority to elect their days.
17. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a parent shall give at least thirty (30) days' notice prior to engaging in travel with the Children unless otherwise agreed.

Conflicts with the Parent-time Schedule.

18. If a conflict arises in the parent-time schedule, the following order of precedence shall be applied in determining which parent is entitled to parent-time:
 - a. the holiday schedule for Mother's Day or Father's Day;
 - b. the holiday schedule for the child's birthday, unless a parent is exercising uninterrupted extended parent-time and takes the child away from that parent's residence during the uninterrupted extended parent-time;
 - c. the holiday schedule for any holiday that is not Father's Day, Mother's Day, or the child's birthday;

- d. summer parent-time; and
- e. the schedule for weekday or weekend parent-time.

Transportation of the Minor Children.

- 19. If school is in session, the parent who is concluding his or her parent-time is responsible to take the Children to school in the morning at the conclusion of that parent's last overnight, and the parent who is commencing his or her parent-time is responsible to pick the Children up from school in the afternoon of that same day in order to commence that parent's parent-time.
- 20. In the event that a child is sick and does not attend school on the day of the scheduled exchange, the parent whose parent-time is concluding shall be responsible for the child and the child's care until the time school would have normally been dismissed for that day.
- 21. If school is not in session, the parent-time exchange shall take place at 8:00 a.m., with the parent who is ending his or her parent-time being responsible to drop the Children off by 8:00 a.m. to the other parent.
- 22. Each party is responsible to transport the Children to and from school during that party's parent-time and is responsible for the Children's timely arrival to and pick-up from school.
- 23. Each party is responsible to transport the Children to and from the Children's activities and is responsible for the Children's timely arrival to and pick-up from those activities.
- 24. Except as otherwise agreed to from time to time, when school is in session all parent-time exchanges shall take place at school when possible, and otherwise shall occur at the parents' residences.
- 25. Any parent-time exchange which takes place at a residence shall be curbside.

26. Each parent shall have the Children ready for parent-time at the time the Children are to be picked up and shall be present at the appointed time and place.

27. A stepparent, grandparent, or other responsible individual designated by the receiving parent may pick up a child if the other parent is aware of the identity of the individual and the receiving parent will be with the child by 7:00 p.m.

28. The parties shall notify the other parent when someone else is picking up the minor Children.

Parenting Plan.

29. In compliance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-203, the Parenting Plan submitted by the parties is adopted by this Court and incorporated into this Decree of Divorce. The parenting rights, duties, and responsibilities of the parties with respect to their minor Children shall be as set forth in the separate Parenting Plan.

30. Restrictions. The parents shall not question the Children about each other's personal relationships, financial spending, or otherwise use the Children as tools for discovery. The parents shall not use the Children as confidantes to counsel with about their own personal problems, especially if the problem is related to the other parent. The parents shall not discuss adult issues with the Children, including, but not limited to, legal proceedings. Each parent has a duty to keep court paperwork in a secure location so that the Children do not read it. The parents shall not make negative or derogatory comments about each other or about the Children's grandparents or other extended family members, to the Children or within the Children's range of hearing. The parents shall remove the Children from any extended family or third parties that Speak negatively or make derogatory comments about the other parent in the presence of the Children.

31. The parents shall not make derogatory remarks in the presence of the Children regarding any school or extra-curricular activity, or any medical or mental health procedure, in which the other parent desires for the Children to participate.

32. The parents shall not ask the Children to lie for them or to keep something secret from the other parent.

33. The parents shall not engage in any action that would estrange the Children from the other parent or impair the Children's love or respect for the other parent.

34. Encouraged Actions. The parents are encouraged to maintain predictable schedules for the Children, including similar mealtimes, homework schedules, chores, bedtimes, curfew, and other routines. The parents are encouraged to maintain similar styles of discipline of the Children so as to allow the Children predictability. The parents shall respect each other's parenting style, personal beliefs, and values, to eliminate the emotional trauma and pain to the Children that results from conflicts between them. The parents are encouraged to speak about positive attributes of the other parent with the Children. The parents are encouraged to initiate contact with the other parent if the Children request to speak with the other parent.

35. Physical Needs of the Children. Both parties shall provide individual beds for each of the Children in order to exercise overnight parent-time. Neither party shall have an overnight with a significant other while exercising parent-time until that party has been exclusively dating that individual for at least twelve (12) months.

36. Educational Path for the Children. Unless otherwise agreed upon by the parties, the Children shall attend school at DaVinci Academy.

37. Surrogate Care. When either party is unable to be with the Children overnight, that party shall give the other party reasonable notice of his or her unavailability and allow the other parent the opportunity to provide such care. The party electing the right of first refusal shall be responsible for all transportation of the minor Children and shall have the minor Children returned timely.

38. Each parent shall provide all surrogate care providers with the name, current address, and telephone number of the other parent and shall provide the other parent with the name, current address, and telephone number of all surrogate care providers.

39. Travel. Whenever traveling with the Children, each parent shall give the other parent sixty (60) days' notice before leaving of: (a) an itinerary of travel dates and locations; (b) a telephone number whereby the parent can reach the Children during travel; and (c) the best time for the parent to call the Children or when the Children will call the parent.

40. Extracurricular Activities. The extracurricular activities of the Children, including but not limited to summer camps, sports, clubs, music lessons, and school related dances, groups, or other functions, shall be as the parties can agree in writing. The parties shall equally divide the cost of an extracurricular activity if agreed in writing. If an activity can be done without affecting the other parent's parent-time, and the parent does not expect the other parent to pay for the activity, then no permission is necessary for a child to participate. Before enrolling or discussing an activity with a child that affects the other parent's parent-time, or for which a parent is requesting that the other parent provide financial support, the parent proposing the activity shall discuss the activity with the other parent. The parent proposing the activity shall not encourage, permit, or consent to such an activity without first receiving approval by the other parent if it affects the other parent's parent-time. Each parent shall be responsible to get the Children to any agreed-upon extracurricular activity that occurs during his or her parent-time.

41. Children's Documents. Robin shall maintain possession of the Children's birth certificates, social security cards, and passports.

42. Communication. All communication between the parents shall be honest, civil, factual, and aimed at maintaining a good parenting relationship with the other parent. The parents shall not use the Children as messengers but shall instead communicate with each other directly. It is preferable to communicate in writing via text message or email, or by use of an agreed-upon parenting app.

43. The parents shall avoid any in-person communication that might result in a conflict at a parent-time exchange and shall instead address the issue via email or text message. Email and text message are the preferred method of communication. In the event of an emergency, the parties may telephone the other party.

44. Communication about the Children shall be between the parents only. The parents shall not require each other to speak with his or her new boyfriend/spouse or girlfriend/spouse.

Major Decisions and Dispute Resolution.

45. Day-to-Day Decisions. The party with whom the Children are residing may make minor day-to-day decisions regarding the Children's care without having to consult with the other parent.

46. Major Decisions. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues, including but not limited to educational, medical, and religious issues in raising the Children. If and when a major issue arises, the parties' dispute resolution process shall be as follows:

- a. first, the parents shall identify and address the issue or issues together;
- b. second, each of the parents shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other, and if the decision involves medical or schooling issues the parents may further elect to seek input from treating physicians or educators, with both parents to be provided with such input; and
- c. third, in the event that the parties are still unable to reach an agreement regarding the decision after receiving input from a qualified professional, then Robin shall have the presumptive decision-making authority to implement her decision.

47. Emergency Treatment. Either parent may initiate emergency medical, dental, or psychological treatment, and shall notify and involve the other parent as soon as possible.

48. Pediatrician. Unless otherwise agreed, the Children shall continue to be treated by their current pediatrician.

49. Parent Contact Information. The parties shall provide each other with their current address, phone number, and email address at all times. Each of the parents shall immediately advise the other parent in writing of any change of address, email, telephone number, or other information pertinent to communication.

50. Sharing of Information and Cooperation. Each parent shall exchange information concerning the health, education, and welfare of the Children. Each parent shall notify the other parent if the Children have a disciplinary or significant social issue at school within twenty-four (24) hours of receiving notice. Information concerning the Children's school shall be exchanged between the parents upon receipt of the same. Each parent shall inform the other of all major activities and events the Children will be participating in as soon as reasonably possible so the other parent will have the opportunity to attend the activity or special event. Each of the parents is responsible for arranging meetings with teachers, and if the parents' and teachers' schedules permit, the parents may choose to attend conferences together. Each of the parents shall have access to educational and health care records of the Children. Each of the parents shall inform the other, within forty-eight (48) hours, of any instance where a child was or has become ill while in that parent's care or where that parent scheduled or took a child to a routine, non-routine, or emergency medical or mental health care visit while in that parent's care. Both parents shall be entitled to be present at and to participate in any appointment with any medical provider. A parent's participation in a child's mental health therapy shall be governed by the therapist. If one of the parents is not able to attend an appointment, the other parent shall provide a summary within forty-eight (48) hours of the appointment. Each of the parents shall have an equal right of access to all medical and mental health care information concerning the Children.

51. Neither of the parents shall have the right to micro-manage each other's day-to-day care and control of the Children while the Children are not residing with that parent, nor shall either parent have the right to interfere with the other parent's parent-time.

52. The parents shall be flexible in adjusting the schedule to allow for family reunions, funerals, weddings, birthday celebrations, and other meaningful religious or secular gatherings.

53. Each parent shall have the Children ready for parent-time at the time the Children are to be picked up and shall be present at the appointed time and place.

54. Regular school hours may not be interrupted for school-age Children for the exercise of parent-time by either parent.

55. Neither parent-time nor child support is to be withheld due to either parent's failure to comply with a court-ordered parent-time schedule.

56. Relocation. In the event either party plans to relocate more than twenty-five (25) miles from DaVinci Academy, such that the current joint custody and parent-time arrangement is unfeasible, the relocating party shall provide a sixty (60) day notice to the other party and file the necessary petition to modify pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-209. The non-relocating party shall be designated as the primary custodial parent, and the relocating parent shall be awarded parent-time pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-302. If the relocating party moves more than one hundred (100) miles from DaVinci Academy, the relocating parent's parent-time shall be pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-9-209.

57. Virtual Parent-time. Each parent shall permit and encourage, during reasonable hours, reasonable and uncensored communications with the Children in the form of mail privileges and virtual parent-time.

58. Sex Offender Notification. A parent shall immediately notify the other parent if the parent resides with, or provides access to the minor Children to, an individual the parent knows: (a) is required to register as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender for an offense committed against a minor under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry; (b) has been convicted of child abuse (§ 76-5-109), aggravated child abuse (§ 76-5-109.2), child abandonment (§ 76-5-109.3), child torture (§ 76-5-109.4), domestic violence in the presence of a child (§ 76-5-114), child abuse homicide (§ 76-5-208), kidnapping or trafficking with a victim under 18, a sexual offense with a victim under 18, or a sexual exploitation offense with a victim under 18; or (c) has been convicted of a substantially similar offense.

59. Dispute Resolution. If a disagreement arises regarding the parties' exercise of custody and parent-time with a child, the parties shall continue to use their best efforts to amicably resolve such disagreements through appropriate communication with one another, and in all events they shall resolve such disagreements through mediation before seeking the assistance of the Court.

60. If a dispute arises between the parties that concerns an issue that is not financial in nature, prior to involving the Court the parties shall be required to attend mediation with a mutually agreed-upon qualified mediator, with each party paying one-half of the expenses associated therewith. This mediation shall occur at a mutually agreeable place and time within thirty (30) days of written request by either party, subject to the mediator's availability. If one of the parties refuses to mediate, this requirement is waived and the parties may proceed to Court. If the Court orders the parties to mediate at the hearing caused by the refusal of one of the parties to mediate, the party who refused to mediate shall pay all of the mediator's fees.

Medical and Dental Provisions.

61. The parties shall equally share responsibility for medical and dental insurance and uninsured medical and dental expenses for their minor Children in accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-208.

62. In accordance with Subsections (3)(a)–(b) and (4)(b), Robin shall provide the insurance for the medical and dental expenses of the minor Children if insurance is available to her through her place of employment at a reasonable cost. The parties shall agree in writing whether double covering the minor Children on both parents' health insurance policies is appropriate, and if they decide to have double coverage, then each party shall pay their own premiums associated with their own insurance.

63. Pursuant to Subsection (3)(c), if at any time the parties agree to double cover the minor Children, then Robin's health and dental insurance plan shall be primary and Micah's shall be secondary.

64. Pursuant to Subsection (3)(d), each parent shall be required to share equally the out-of-pocket costs of the premium actually paid by a parent for the child's portion of insurance.

65. Pursuant to Subsections (8)(a)–(b), the parent who provides health insurance may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium, and if the parent does not have health insurance but another member of the parent's household provides health insurance for the child, the parent may receive credit against the base child support award or recover the other parent's share of the child's portion of the premium.

66. Pursuant to Subsections (9)(a)–(b), the child's portion of the premium is a per capita share of the premium actually paid, and the premium expense for a child shall be calculated by dividing the premium amount by the number of persons covered under the policy and multiplying the result by the number of children in the instant case.

67. Pursuant to Subsection (10)(a), the parent maintaining health care coverage or insurance shall provide verification of coverage to the other parent, or to the office under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 601 et seq., upon initial enrollment of the child and after initial enrollment.

68. Pursuant to Subsection (10)(b), the parent shall also notify the other parent, or the office under Title IV of the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. § 601 et seq., of any change of insurance carrier, premium, or benefits within thirty (30) calendar days of the date the parent first knew or should have known of the change.

69. Pursuant to Subsection (3)(e), each parent shall equally share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for a child, including co-payments, co-insurance, and deductibles.

70. If and when the Children need glasses, the parties shall share a limit of $200.00 total for the out-of-pocket cost (i.e., $100.00 each) for frames and lenses per child, and any amount above the $200.00 is the sole responsibility of the parent initiating the purchase of the glasses.

71. Pursuant to Subsection (10)(c), a parent who incurs medical expenses shall provide written verification of the cost and payment of medical expenses to the other parent within thirty (30) days of payment. To ensure timely reimbursement, the other party shall have thirty (30) days from receiving notice to reimburse the party who incurred the expense.

72. In addition to any other sanctions provided by the Court, pursuant to Subsection (10)(d), the Court may deny a parent incurring medical expenses the right to receive credit for the expenses or to recover the other parent's share of the expenses if that parent fails to comply with the requirements under Subsection (10).

73. Notice to Medical and Dental Expense Creditors. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 15-4-6.7, when a court enters an order that provides for the payment of medical and dental expenses of a minor child under UTAH CODE ANN. §§ 26B-9-224 or 81-6-202, a creditor who has been provided a copy of the order may not make a claim for unpaid medical or dental expenses against a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical or dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, nor may the creditor make a negative credit report under UTAH CODE ANN. § 70C-7-107, or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

Therefore, each party shall:

- a. send a copy of the Court's orders to the creditor of the particular medical or dental expense of the particular minor child;
- b. notify the particular creditor of that party's current address; and
- c. inform the particular creditor that it may not make a claim for unpaid medical expenses against that party if that party has paid in full that share of medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order, and also inform the particular creditor that it may not make a negative credit report under UTAH CODE ANN. § 70C-7-107 or a report of the debtor's repayment practices or credit history under Title 7, Chapter 14, Credit Information Exchange, regarding a parent who has paid in full that share of the medical and dental expenses required to be paid by that parent under the order.

Childcare Expenses.

74. Pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-209, the parties shall equally share the reasonable work-related childcare expenses of the parents.

75. If an actual expense for childcare is incurred, a parent shall begin paying his or her share on a monthly basis immediately upon presentation of proof of the childcare expense, but if the childcare expense ceases to be incurred, that parent may suspend making monthly payment of that expense while it is not being incurred, without obtaining a modification of the child support order.

76. A parent who incurs childcare expense shall provide written verification of the cost and identity of a childcare provider to the other parent upon initial engagement of a provider and thereafter on the request of the other parent. The parent shall notify the other parent of any change of childcare provider or the monthly expense of childcare within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of the change.

Tax Dependency.

77. Beginning in tax year 2026, Robin shall claim M.W. as a dependent on her income tax returns each year, and Micah shall claim W.W. as a dependent on his income tax returns each year so long as W.W. is eligible to be claimed.

78. Micah is entitled to claim the dependency exemption and tax credits indicated herein so long as he is current on his child support obligation by December 31st of any tax year.

State Assistance.

79. Neither party is receiving state assistance on behalf of the minor Children.

Child Support and Additional Costs for the Children.

80. Robin is presently working full-time and her gross monthly income is $3,163.00 per month for a forty (40) hour work week.

81. Micah is presently working full-time and his gross monthly income is $6,530.00 per month.

82. Based upon the joint physical custody child support worksheet, with Robin having 183 overnights and Micah having 182 overnights, Micah shall pay child support to Robin in the amount of $301.00 per month beginning August 1, 2026.

83. In accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 81-6-213, when (1) a child becomes 18 years of age, or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (2) a child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with UTAH CODE ANN. § 80-1-102 et seq., the base child support award shall be automatically adjusted to the base combined child support obligation for the remaining number of children due child support, shown in the table that was used to establish the most recent order, using the incomes of the parties as specified in that order or the child support worksheets filed therewith.

84. Micah shall be required to pay base child support directly to Robin in two equal monthly installments, one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the monthly amount by the 5th day of each month and the other one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) by the 20th day of each month.

85. At any point should the obligated parent fall more than thirty (30) days behind in child support payments, the receiving party shall be entitled to utilize income withholding through the Utah Office of Recovery Services pursuant to UTAH CODE ANN. § 62A-11-502, and otherwise the parties have agreed not to use income withholding.

86. The parties shall equally divide the mandatory school costs, which includes the registration fees, for the minor Children.

87. If the Children do not qualify for free school breakfast, then Micah shall be responsible for paying the Children's school breakfast and shall keep the Children's school breakfast account balances current.

88. Robin shall keep the Children on her cell phone plan, and Micah shall be responsible for paying M.W.'s portion of the monthly cell phone bill.

Alimony.

89. Both parties are able to financially support himself or herself and no alimony is awarded now or in the future.

Real Property.

90. During the course of the marriage, the parties acquired a home and real property located at 1102 20th Street, Ogden, Utah (the "Home").

- a. Possession. Until the sale of the Home occurs, possession, use, and occupancy of the Home is awarded to Micah.
- b. Maintenance. Until the sale of the Home, Micah shall be responsible for the care and maintenance of the Home, including the payment of utilities, maintenance, and home insurance.
- c. Mortgage Payments. Until the sale of the Home, Micah shall be responsible for the monthly mortgage payments.
- d. Buy Out Option. Micah has until September 1, 2026 to buy out Robin's share of the equity in the Home. The Home was appraised for $384,000.00, the current mortgage amount is $138,324.00, and Robin's one-half share of the equity is $122,838.00.
- e. In connection with a buyout, the following shall apply:
 - i. the sum of $122,838.00 shall be paid in full to Robin by September 1, 2026, and contemporaneous with the payment, Micah shall complete a refinance of the existing mortgage loan in order to remove Robin from the mortgage obligation, and Micah shall be responsible for the costs of the refinance;
 - ii. pending the buyout, Micah is awarded exclusive use and occupancy of the property, being responsible for the mortgage and all other costs associated with the Home, including routine and regular upkeep and maintenance in connection with the property; and

iii. upon removing Robin from the mortgage obligation and tendering to her the sum of $122,838.00, Micah is awarded the property as his sole and separate property free and clear of any claim or interest of Robin, together with all equity therein and subject to all debt and encumbrance thereon, and in conjunction with this, Robin shall execute the deed required by the lender in order to deed the property to Micah in its entirety.

f. Should Micah decline the buyout option or fail to complete the buyout option in accordance with the provisions set forth above, then the property shall be promptly listed for sale and promptly sold, and in the event of a sale of the property the following provisions shall apply:

i. the Home shall be listed for sale no later than September 1, 2026, and at his option Micah may determine to list the Home for sale earlier; the Home shall be sold to the first bona fide purchaser to whom both parties mutually agree in writing; and if the parties are unable to agree on a buyer within ninety (90) days of listing the Home for sale, the Home shall be sold to the first bona fide purchaser who offers at least ninety percent (90%) of the Home's fair market value as determined either by agreement of the parties after consultation with a licensed real estate agent or by a licensed real estate appraiser selected by mutual agreement of the parties;

- ii. Listing and Marketing. The parties shall cooperate in good faith to list and market the Home for sale, including jointly selecting a licensed real estate agent to list the Home; jointly agreeing upon and equally sharing the costs for any major repairs and costs to get the Home ready for sale as guided by their real estate agent; agreeing on an initial listing price; making the Home available for showings and inspections; and promptly reviewing and responding to all offers received;
- iii. Closing and Proceeds. Upon acceptance of an offer meeting the criteria set forth above, both parties shall promptly execute all documents necessary to complete the sale of the Home; and
- iv. Sale Proceeds. Proceeds from the sale of the Home shall first be used to pay the mortgage, commissions, and other costs associated with the sale of the Home, and the net proceeds from the sale of the Home shall then be divided equally between the parties.

Personal Property.

91. The parties shall equitably divide all remaining marital personal property acquired during the marriage. If the parties have a dispute over the division, this shall be a stand-alone issue that does not impact the remainder of this Decree of Divorce. The parties shall first attend mediation before bringing the matter before the Court.

Vehicle Division.

92. Robin is awarded possession of the 2021 Subaru Outback. The parties shall equally divide the vehicle payment until the vehicle is paid off, which is anticipated to occur in approximately August 2026. 93. Micah is awarded the 2024 Subaru Forester and shall be responsible for all costs associated with the vehicle and shall hold Robin harmless.

94. Upon entry of this Decree of Divorce, the parties shall execute all documents necessary to transfer any awarded property into the other party's name.

Retirement Accounts.

95. Micah's 401(k) Account. Micah currently has a 401(k) account through his employer, United Airlines. Robin is awarded fifty percent (50%) of the vested account balance acquired during the marriage, excluding any outstanding loan balance, with the marital portion valued as of the date of entry of this Decree of Divorce (the "Valuation Date"). Robin's share shall also include any gains or losses attributable to her portion from the Valuation Date through the date of distribution, to the extent permitted by the Plan.

96. The parties shall use Rori Hendrix to prepare the Qualified Domestic Relations Order, or other document or documents needed in order to effectuate division of the account, which shall be subject to the parties' review and approval prior to being filed with the Court or submitted to the Plan. The parties shall share equally the costs of preparing the documents and any fees charged by the Plan in connection with implementation of the Qualified Domestic Relations

Order or transfer. No transfers or withdrawals shall be made from the account until the Qualified Domestic Relations Order is implemented or the division is completed.

Debts and Obligations.

- 97. The parties shall equally divide the debts for:
- a. Smith's Mastercard credit card (Acct. #5616) for $2,963.53; and

- 100. Micah shall be responsible for his Chase United credit card (Acct. #3833) and America First Credit Union credit card (Acct. #5682), line of credit, and overdrafts.
- 101. Each party is restrained from incurring any debts, obligations, and liabilities on the other party's credit, and also from doing anything for which the other party may become legally liable.

Bank Accounts Division.

- 102. Robin is awarded the following bank account:
- a. America First Credit Union Acct. #9947.
- 103. Micah is awarded the following bank accounts:
- a. Chase Checking and Savings Acct. #7843; and
 - b. America First Credit Union Acct. #3568.

104. W.W. is awarded his America First Credit Union Acct. #9785, and neither party may withdraw money from the account without the mutual consent of both parties.

105. M.W. is awarded his America First Credit Union Acct. #9990, and neither party may withdraw money from the account without the mutual consent of both parties.

Medical Insurance Coverage.

106. Micah shall remain on Robin's medical insurance until entry of this Decree of Divorce.

Automobile Insurance.

107. Beginning August 1, 2026, each party shall be responsible for maintaining his or her own automobile insurance coverage at his or her individual expense. Each party shall obtain and maintain a separate automobile insurance policy in his or her own name without delay.

Life Insurance Policies.

108. The parties are awarded his or her own term life insurance policies.

Costs and Attorney Fees.

109. The parties shall equally divide the costs and attorney fees. Micah shall pay Robin $1,250.00 within ninety (90) days of entry of this Decree of Divorce.

Maiden Name.

110. Robin is restored to her maiden name of Pratt should she so choose.

Miscellaneous Provisions.

111. Each party shall be required to promptly make, execute, and deliver any further assurances, releases, contracts, and instruments that may be necessary to carry into effect the terms, covenants, conditions, and provisions of this Decree of Divorce. If either party fails to comply, this Decree of Divorce shall constitute an actual grant, assignment, and conveyance of property and rights in such manner and with such force and effect as shall be necessary to effectuate the terms hereof, and at the election of the non-disobedient party, he or she may bring a Motion to Enforce at the expense of the disobedient party and seek that the Court appoint some other person to execute the necessary documents pursuant to Rule 70 of the Utah Rules of Civil Procedure. Any document executed pursuant to Rule 70 has the same effect as if executed by the disobedient party.

112. The parties assume joint responsibility for the form and composition of the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement, and it shall be interpreted as though each of the parties participated equally in the composition of each and every part thereof.
