This matter came before the Court upon the Verified Petition for Divorce filed by Petitioner Valarie R. Bradshaw and upon the Stipulation and Agreement executed by the parties on September 2, 2026. The Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and good cause appearing:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED AS FOLLOWS:

1. Decree of Divorce. The parties are granted a Decree of Divorce, final upon entry, severing the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between them, upon the ground of irreconcilable differences pursuant to Utah Code § 81-4-405(1)(h).
2. Stipulation Incorporated. The parties' Stipulation and Agreement is approved and adopted by the Court and is incorporated into this Decree of Divorce.

3. Legal Custody. The parties are awarded the joint legal custody of the minor child, W.J.B., born February 8, 2014, pursuant to the terms of the parties' parenting plan. The parties shall discuss any major decision affecting the minor child.

4. Physical Custody. The parties are awarded the joint physical custody of the minor child.

5. Parent-Time. Parent-time shall be as the parties can agree. If the parties are unable to agree, parent-time shall be pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-305. The parties shall rotate a week-on, week-off schedule, with exchanges occurring on Sundays at 4:00 p.m.

6. Holidays and Extended Parent-Time. The parties shall follow Utah Code § 81-9-302 for holiday and summer parent-time. For purposes of the holiday schedule, Petitioner shall be the custodial parent. Holiday parent-time takes precedence over the week-on, week-off schedule set forth above.

7. Transportation. Transportation costs shall be allocated pursuant to Utah Code § 81-9-305.

8. Relocation. If either party relocates, that party shall comply with the statutory relocation requirements. [Utah Code § 81-9-209.]

9. Day-to-Day and Emergency Decisions. Each party shall make day-to-day decisions regarding the care, control and discipline of the minor child while the child is in that party's care. Each party may make emergency decisions affecting the health or safety of the minor child, and shall notify the other party as soon as possible of any such decision.

10. Parenting Plan. The parties shall comply with the following parenting plan provisions:

- a. Each party is entitled to reasonable, uninterrupted, and unmonitored and uncensored telephone, videophone and comparable electronic contact with the minor child at reasonable hours and for reasonable durations, based upon the child's abilities, interests, schedule and willingness to participate, while the other party is exercising parent-time. Each party shall likewise enjoy unmonitored and uncensored text, mail and e-mail contact with the child.

b. Each party has the right to obtain treatment for the minor child's emergency medical needs.

c. Each party shall have absolute and complete access to all of the minor child's educational and medical records, and each party shall be listed as a parent for purposes of school and medical care provider contact.

d. Each party shall reasonably provide the other with contact information regarding schools and other educational programs, teachers, leaders of religious training, coaches, leaders of extracurricular activities, and other contact information that allows the other party to participate in the child's life. Each party shall notify the other as soon as reasonably possible of any illness, accident or other circumstance affecting the child's health and welfare.

e. Each party shall have open access to contact the persons or entities necessary to be notified of the minor child's significant activities, whether related to education, sports, arts, extracurricular activities, church or other events, so that both parties may attend or participate.

f. The parties shall meet and discuss major decisions together, focusing on objective criteria and facts and involving any professional who may be of assistance. If the parties do not reach agreement, Petitioner shall have final decision-making authority, subject to Respondent's right to bring the issue before the Court or to mediation.

g. Both parties shall recognize that the minor child's best interests require them to cooperate and to treat each other with dignity and respect, particularly in the child's presence, and shall encourage affection toward and promote respect for the other party.

h. Neither party shall attempt to harm the relationship between the minor child and the other party, including by making disparaging comments about the other party or by allowing the child to be in the presence of anyone who does.

i. The parties shall regularly discuss the routines and rules they use with the minor child and shall attempt to create common ground to minimize the child's emotional discomfort; provided that neither party is required to follow the other's suggestions unless ordered by the Court.

j. Both parties shall share information regarding any condition, problem, significant fact or circumstance that may affect the other party's relationship with the minor child or the child's wellbeing.

k. The parties shall build a co-parenting relationship of trust and respect and shall work together to improve their parenting skills and share their ideas.

11. Child Support. Respondent shall pay Petitioner child support in the amount of $480.00 per month, beginning May 1, 2026, and continuing each month thereafter. The child support amount is based on a joint custody worksheet, with Petitioner's income imputed at $9,000.00 per month and Respondent's income imputed at $20,000.00 per month.

a. Respondent has already paid child support for July and August 2026 but was $42.00 short per month, and shall pay that back child support. Accordingly, Respondent owes $522.00 for both May and June 2026 for child support.

b. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-7-102(3), Respondent's child support payments shall be due one-half by the fifth (5th) and one-half by the twentieth (20th) day of each month.

c. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-213, child support for the minor child shall terminate when (i) the child becomes eighteen years of age or has graduated from high school during the child's normal and expected year of graduation, whichever occurs later, or (ii) the child dies, marries, becomes a member of the armed forces of the United States, or is emancipated in accordance with Utah Code Title 80, Chapter 7.

d. Child support shall be subject to income withholding as provided by law, and either party may register this Decree with the office of recovery services for collection and disbursement.

12. Extracurricular Expenses and School Fees. The cost of extracurricular expenses and school fees shall be divided as the parties can agree. If the parties are unable to agree, they shall equally (50/50) share all extracurricular expenses, so long as the expense is agreed to in advance and in writing. Neither party shall unreasonably deny an extracurricular expense.

a. If the parties are unable to agree on the allocation of school fees, they shall equally (50/50) share all necessary school fees, including but not limited to school lunches, books, registration fees and uniforms.

b. 13. Health Insurance. Pursuant to Utah Code § 81-6-208, the parties shall provide health insurance for the minor child so long as it is available to them at a reasonable cost. Respondent shall maintain health insurance for the minor child so long as it remains reasonably available to him.

a. So long as Respondent carries the minor child on his health insurance, Respondent shall pay the full cost of the premium attributable to the child. The parties each carry their own dental insurance for the minor child and each shall pay the full cost of his or her own premium.

b. The parties shall equally (50/50) share all reasonable and necessary uninsured and unreimbursed medical and dental expenses incurred for the minor child and actually paid by a party, including deductibles and co-payments.

c. Pursuant to Utah Code § 15-4-6.7(1)(a), the parties shall maintain separate billing accounts with the minor child's health care providers whenever possible. If separate billing accounts are not available, the party who incurs a medical expense shall provide written verification of the cost and payment to the other party within thirty (30) days of payment, and the other party shall pay his or her one-half share within thirty (30) days after receiving the written verification.
