Attorney for Petitioner

IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT
WEBER COUNTY, STATE OF UTAH — OGDEN DEPARTMENT

JENNI TATTON,

Petitioner,

vs.

TRAVIS SHANE FONGER,

Respondent.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

Civil No. 264901403

Judge Craig Hall

Commissioner Brandon Richards

This matter came before the Court upon the Verified Petition for Divorce filed by Petitioner, JENNI TATTON, and upon the Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement of the parties.

Petitioner is represented by Glen W. Neeley of the LAW OFFICE OF GLEN W. NEELEY.

Respondent, TRAVIS SHANE FONGER, appears without counsel and has stipulated to the entry of this Decree. The Court having entered its Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, and good cause appearing,

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED as follows:

1. Petitioner, Jenni Tatton, is awarded a Decree of Divorce from Respondent, Travis Shane Fonger, on the grounds of irreconcilable differences of the marriage pursuant to Utah

Code Ann. § 81-4-405(1)(h). The marriage contract heretofore existing between the parties is dissolved, and each party is restored to the status of an unmarried person.

2. No children were born to or adopted by the parties as issue of this marriage, Petitioner is not pregnant, and no children are expected. No orders regarding child custody, parent-time, or child support are entered.
3. The parties' Stipulation and Property Settlement Agreement is approved and adopted by the Court. Its terms are incorporated and merged into this Decree and are enforceable as orders of this Court.
4. Each party is awarded, as that party's sole and separate property free and clear of any claim by the other, all personal property, household goods and furnishings, bank and financial accounts, vehicles, and retirement or investment accounts presently in that party's possession, name, or control. Each party waives any claim to the other party's retirement, pension, or deferred compensation benefits, whether vested or unvested, and to any interest in any business owned or operated by the other. This division is equitable pursuant to Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-4-204 and 81-4-406(4)(c).
5. The parties incurred no joint debt during the marriage. Each party shall pay, and shall indemnify and hold the other party harmless from, all debts and obligations incurred in that party's individual name, together with all debts incurred by that party since the date of separation.

6. Each party shall notify that party's creditors and obligees of the division of debts ordered in this Decree and of the parties' separate and current addresses, as required by Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-406(3)(a) and (b) and Utah Code Ann. § 15-4-6.5.
7. If either party fails to pay a debt allocated to that party by this Decree and the other party is required to pay it, the defaulting party shall reimburse the paying party for the amount paid, together with any interest, costs, and reasonable attorney fees incurred in obtaining reimbursement.
8. Alimony is denied and permanently barred as to both parties. The Court expressly declines to reserve jurisdiction to award alimony to either party at any time in the future. Utah Code Ann. §§ 81-4-406(4)(a) and 81-4-502.
9. Petitioner does not request restoration of a former name and shall continue to be known as Jenni Tatton.
10. Each party shall review and, where appropriate, update the beneficiaries designated under any life insurance policy or annuity contract owned by that party. The parties are advised that, in accordance with Utah Code Ann. § 81-4-406(3)(d), the entry of this Decree does not by itself change the designation of a beneficiary under any life insurance policy or annuity contract.
11. Each party shall execute any and all documents reasonably necessary to carry out the terms of this Decree.

12. Each party shall bear that party's own attorney fees and costs incurred in this action, except that a party required to bring an action to enforce this Decree shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorney fees and costs incurred in that enforcement action.
13. This Court retains jurisdiction to enforce the terms of this Decree, except that it expressly declines to retain jurisdiction over the issue of alimony as set forth above.

This Decree is effective on the date of the Court's signature. The Court's signature and the date of signature appear at the top of the first page of this document.
