MEMORANDUM

 TO: Judicial Council Management Committee
FROM: Holly M. Bullen
Assistant State Court Administrator
DATE: February 17, 2000
RE: UNIFORM FINE/BAIL SCHEDULE STANDING COMMITTEE

In January of 2000, Judge Roger Livingston completed his first term on the Uniform Fine/Bail Schedule Standing Committee. Judge Livingston has indicated he would like to serve a second three-year term, and staff has indicated that there were no issues with his attendance or participation on the Committee during his first term.

As you will recall, Management Committee has taken the position that, if the incumbent desires a second term and there are no problems with his/her participation with the standing committee during the first term, the incumbent is reappointed without the need of announcing the vacancy.

Accordingly, I submit the name of Judge Livingston for reappointment to the Uniform Fine/Bail Schedule Standing Committee. If Management Committee agrees with this, I request that the reappointment be placed on the consent calendar of the March Judicial Council meeting.

Thank you for your consideration of this matter.

c: Mark Jones, District Court Administrator
