

Rule 7. Warrants for immediate custody of minors; grounds; execution of warrants; search warrants.

(a) The issuance and execution of a warrant in delinquency cases is governed by Title 77, Chapter 7, Arrest, and by Section 78-3a-112 and Section 78-3a-113.

(b (previously 7h)) The issuance and execution of a warrant in dependency, neglect and abuse cases is governed by Section 78-3a-106 and Section 78-3a-113.

(c b) After a petition is filed, a warrant for immediate custody of a minor may be issued if the court finds from the facts set forth in an affidavit filed with the court or in the petition that there is probable cause to believe that:

(c b)(1) the minor has committed an act which would be a felony if committed by an adult;

(c b)(2) the minor has failed to appear after the minor or the parent, guardian or custodian has been legally served with a summons;

(c b)(3) there is a substantial likelihood the minor will not respond to a summons;

(c b)(4) the summons cannot be served and the minor's present whereabouts are unknown;

(c b)(5) the minor seriously endangers others and immediate removal appears to be necessary for the protection of others or the public; or

(c b)(6) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the minor has run away or escaped from the minor's parent, guardian or custodian.

(d e) A warrant for immediate custody of a minor may be issued if the court finds from the affidavit that the minor is under the continuing jurisdiction of the court and probable cause to believe that the minor:

(d e)(1) has left the custody of the person or agency vested by the court with legal custody and guardianship without permission; or

(d e)(2) has violated a court order.

(e d) A warrant for immediate custody shall be signed by a court and shall contain or be supported by the following:

(e d)(1) an order that the minor be taken to juvenile the detention or shelter facility or an adult detention facility, if appropriate, designated by the court at the address specified pending a hearing or further order of the court;

(e d)(2) the name, date of birth and last known address of the minor;

(e d)(3) the reasons why the minor is being taken into custody;

(e d)(4) a time limitation on the execution of the warrant;

(e d)(5) the name and title of the person requesting the warrant unless ordered by the court on its own initiative pursuant to these rules; and

(e d)(6) the date, county and court location where the warrant is being issued.

(e d)(7) On verbal request from a probation officer or other authorized individual a warrant for custody may be issued telephonically during non-business hours or under exigent circumstances when it appears necessary for the protection of the community or the minor juvenile and shall be supported by an affidavit from the requesting authority the next court business day.

(f e) Search warrants, with an order of immediate custody, may be issued in the manner provided by law.

(g f) A peace officer who brings a minor to a detention facility pursuant to a court order for immediate custody shall so inform the person in charge of the facility and the existence of such order shall require the minor's immediate admission. A minor so admitted may not be released without court order.

(h) This rule shall not limit the statutory authority of a probation officer to take a minor who has violated a condition of probation into custody.
