

Rule 7. Warrants for immediate custody of minors; grounds; execution of warrants; search warrants.

(a) The issuance and execution of a warrant in delinquency cases is governed by Title 77, Chapter 7, Arrest, and by Section 78-3a-112 and Section 78-3a-113.

(b) After a petition is filed, a warrant for immediate custody of a minor may be issued if the court finds from the facts set forth in an affidavit filed with the court or in the petition that there is probable cause to believe that:

(1) the minor has committed an act which would be a felony if committed by an adult;

(2) the minor has failed to appear after the minor or the parent, guardian or custodian has been legally served with a summons;

(3) there is a substantial likelihood the minor will not respond to a summons;

(4) the summons cannot be served and the minor's present whereabouts are unknown;

(5) the minor seriously endangers others and immediate removal appears to be necessary for the protection of others or the public; or

(6) there are reasonable grounds to believe that the minor has run away or escaped from the minor's parent, guardian or custodian.

(c) A warrant for immediate custody of a minor may be issued if the court finds from the affidavit that the minor is under the continuing jurisdiction of the court and probable cause to believe that the minor:

(1) has left the custody of the person or agency vested by the court with legal custody and guardianship without permission; or

(2) has violated a court order.

(d) A warrant for immediate custody shall be signed by a court and shall contain or be supported by the following:

(1) an order that the minor be taken to the detention or shelter facility designated by the court at the address specified pending a hearing or further order of the court;

(2) the name, date of birth and last known address of the minor;

(3) the reasons why the minor is being taken into custody;

(4) a time limitation on the execution of the warrant;

(5) the name and title of the person requesting the warrant unless ordered by the court on its own initiative pursuant to these rules; and

(6) the date, county and court location where the warrant is being issued.

(7) On verbal request from a probation officer or other authorized individual a warrant for custody may be issued telephonically during non-business hours or under exigent circumstances when it appears necessary for the protection of the community or the juvenile and shall be supported by an affidavit from the requesting authority the next court business day.

(e) Search warrants, with an order of immediate custody, may be issued in the manner provided by law.

(f) A peace officer who brings a minor to a detention facility pursuant to a court order for immediate custody shall so inform the person in charge of the facility and the existence of such order shall require the minor's immediate admission. A minor so admitted may not be released without court order.

(g) This rule shall not limit the statutory authority of a probation officer to take a minor who has violated a condition of probation into custody.

(h) The issuance and execution of a warrant in dependency, neglect and abuse cases is governed by Utah Code Ann. 78-3a-106, and Section 78-3a-113.

(i) A warrant for immediate custody of a minor may be issued if the court finds from the facts set forth in an affidavit filed with the court that there is probable cause to believe that there is an immediate threat to the safety of a child. No child shall be removed from his home or school prior without notice to the parent or guardian unless provides reasons to the court that notice and opportunity to be heard are not required under the circumstances.

(j) A warrant for immediate custody shall be signed by a court and shall contain or be supported by the following:

(1) an order that the minor be taken to the detention or shelter facility or other location designated by the court at the address specified pending a hearing or further order of the court;

(2) the name, date of birth and last known address of the minor;

(3) the reasons why the minor is being taken into custody;

(4) a time limitation on the execution of the warrant;

(5) the name and title of the person requesting the warrant unless ordered by the court on its own initiative pursuant to these rules; and

(6) the date, county and court location where the warrant is being issued.

(7) On verbal request from a state officer, peace officer, or child welfare worker or other authorized individual a warrant for custody may be issued telephonically when it appears necessary for the protection of the juvenile. Telephonic warrants shall be supported by an affidavit from the requesting authority the next court business day.

(k) Search warrants, with an order of immediate custody, may be issued in the manner provided by law.

(l) A peace officer who brings a minor to a detention or shelter facility pursuant to a court order for immediate custody shall so inform the person in charge of the facility and the existence of such order shall require the minor's immediate admission. A minor so admitted may not be released without court order.

(m) Return of service on a warrant shall be executed as soon as possible after service, but not later than the shelter hearing unless otherwise ordered by the Court.

Rule 37. Protective orders.

(a) Protective order proceedings may be commenced as an independent action by filing a petition. Any interested person may file a petition for a protective order on behalf of a child who has been abused, sexually abused, neglected, or abandoned or is in imminent danger of being abused, sexually abused, neglected, or abandoned. The petitioner shall first make a referral to the division. If an immediate ex parte protective order is requested pending a hearing, the petition or an accompanying affidavit shall set forth the facts constituting good cause for issuance of the ex parte order.

(b) If the petitioner is the agent of a public or private agency, including a law enforcement agency, the petition shall set forth the agent's title and the name of the agency that the petitioner represents.

(c) Petitions for protective orders by a public agency shall not be accepted by the clerk unless reviewed and approved by the attorney for the public agency, whose office shall represent the petitioner in such cases.

(d) The petitioner, if a private person or agency, and the respondent may be represented by retained counsel. Counsel may be appointed by the court for an indigent respondent who is a parent, guardian or custodian of the child alleged to be abused or threatened with abuse. If the court finds in the hearing that the allegations of the petition have been established, the court may assess petitioner's costs and attorney fees against the respondent. If the court finds that the petition is without merit, the respondent's costs and attorneys fees may be assessed against petitioner.

(e) If an ex parte order has been issued, the hearing must be held within 20 days excluding Saturdays, Sundays and legal holidays.
