

Applicability:

This rule shall apply to the Supreme Court, the Administrative Office of the Courts, and the Supreme Court advisory committees.

Statement of the Rule:

(1) Establishment of committees. There is hereby established a Supreme Court advisory committee in each of the following areas: civil procedure, criminal procedure, juvenile court procedure, appellate procedure, evidence, and the rules of professional conduct. The Supreme Court shall designate a liaison to each advisory committee and to the Utah State Bar.

(2) Composition of committees. The Supreme Court shall determine the size of each committee based upon the workload of the individual committees. The committees should be broadly representative of the legal community and should include practicing lawyers, academicians, and judges. Members should possess expertise within the committee's jurisdiction.

(3) Application and recruitment of committee members. Vacancies on the committees shall be announced in a manner reasonably calculated to reach members of the Utah State Bar. The notice shall specify the name of the committee which has the vacancy, a brief description of the committee's responsibilities, the method for submitting an application or letter of interest and the application deadline. Members of the committees or the Supreme Court may solicit applications for membership on the committees. Applications and letters of interest shall be submitted to the Supreme Court.

(4) Appointment of committee members and chair. Upon expiration of the application deadline, the Supreme Court shall review the applications and letters of interest and appoint those individuals who are best suited to serve on the committee. Members shall be appointed to serve staggered four-year terms. The Supreme Court shall select a chair from among the committee's members. Judges who serve as members of the committees generally shall not be selected as chairs. Committee members shall serve as officers of the court and not as representatives of any client, employer, or other organization or interest group. At the first meeting of a committee in any calendar year, and at every meeting at which a new member of the committee first attends, each committee member shall briefly disclose the general nature of his or her legal practice.

(5) Vacancies. In the event of a vacancy on a committee due to death, incapacity, resignation or removal, the Supreme Court, after consultation with the committee chair, shall appoint a new committee member to serve for the remainder of the unexpired term.

(6) Absences. In the event that a committee member fails to attend three committee meetings during a calendar year, the chair may notify the Supreme Court of those absences and may request that the Supreme Court replace that committee member.

(7) Administrative assistance. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall coordinate staff support to each committee, including the assistance of the Office of General Counsel in research and drafting and the coordination of secretarial support and publication activities.

(8) Recording secretaries. A committee chair may appoint a third-year law student, a member of the Bar in good standing, or a legal secretary to serve as a recording secretary for the committee. The recording secretary shall attend and take minutes at committee meetings, provide research and drafting assistance to committee members and perform other assignments as requested by the chair.

(Amended effective November 1, 2008.)

Amendment Notes. — The 2008 amendment added the intent and applicability statements and rewrote the text of former Subdivision (2) as the new text of this rule. The remaining text has been rewritten as new Rules 11-102 through 11-105.

Re: Advisory Committee on Rules of Juvenile Procedure

Dear Chief Justice Durham:

The Advisory Committee on the Rules of Juvenile Procedure is seeking to fill two membership vacancies resulting from the resignation of Guardian ad Litem David Johnson, and the term completion of Assistant Attorney General Renee Jimenez. Diane Abegglen advertised the vacancies on behalf of the Committee and received resumes and letters of interest from the following attorneys:

Alison Adams-Perlac
Sterling R. Corbett
Dale P. Eyre
David W. Fureigh

Based on my review of the resumes and qualifications of the applicants, I would recommend that the Supreme Court approve the appointment of Ms. Adams-Perlac, Mr. Corbett and Mr. Fureigh. While each applicant has a unique background and experience, all three have experience as either a Guardian ad Litem or Assistant Attorney General, which would be very beneficial to the Committee.

Sincerely,

Carol Verdoia

Re: Advisory Rule Committees

Dear Ms. Abegglen:

I am submitting this letter as an application for the following advisory rule committees. I have been serving on the Ethics and Discipline Committee for the last six years, but I have been advised that this will be my last and final three-year term. I have enjoyed this committee service because I felt that the service was actually accomplishing something of value.

If I am qualified for any of the following committees, I would be happy to serve on one of them. Given the nature of my practice which is trial prosecution work, I have listed the committees that I believe I could assist in the order that I would prefer: Criminal Procedure; Juvenile Procedure; or Evidence. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully Yours,

Carol,

Believe it or not, the time is here to start thinking about term expirations on the Supreme Court's Advisory Committee on the Rules of Juvenile Procedure. In addition to your term, my records reflect that the terms of the following committee members expire June 30, 2011:

Many of these committee members may want to remain on the committee for another 4-year term. However, in the event that there are vacancies, would you like me to place an announcement in the May/June Bar Journal soliciting applicants? [Note: The deadline for doing so is April 1st.]

Please let me know how you would like to proceed.

Thanks, Carol!
