

Rule 14-105 Conduct of licensed lawyers, Licensed Paralegal Practitioners, and judicial officers; complaints, investigations, and discipline.

1 (a) The Board shall formulate rules governing the conduct of all persons admitted to practice
2 in Utah, including foreign legal consultants and those licensed as Licensed Paralegal
3 Practitioners, and shall investigate unethical, questionable or improper conduct of persons
4 admitted to the practice of the law, including members of the Bar holding judicial office. The 5 Board shall also formulate rules governing procedures in cases involving alleged misconduct of 6 members of the Bar, including those holding judicial office.

7 (b) Court to approve rules and regulations. All rules and regulations formulated by the Board
8 shall be submitted to and approved by the Supreme Court.

Effective November 1, 2018