

Rule 15-513. Immunity from civil suits.

1 Participants in proceedings conducted under this article shall be entitled to the same 2 protections for statements made in the course of the proceedings as participants in judicial 3 proceedings. The district courts, Committee members, supervising attorneys engaged in pro bono 4 assistance, trustees appointed pursuant to Rule 15-527, and OPC counsel and staff shall be 5 immune from suit, except as provided in Utah Rules of Civil Procedure 65A and 65B, for any 6 conduct committed in the course of their official duties, including the investigatory stage. There 7 is no immunity from civil suit for intentional misconduct.

Effective November 1, 2018
