

Rule 15-531. Noncompliance with child support order, child visitation order, subpoena or order relating to paternity or child support proceeding.

1        (a) Upon entry of an order holding a licensed paralegal practitioner in contempt for the 2 licensed paralegal practitioner's noncompliance with a child support order, child visitation order,
3 or a subpoena or order relating to a paternity or child support proceeding, a district court may 4 suspend the licensed paralegal practitioner's license to engage in the practice of law consistent
5 with applicable law and, if suspended, shall also impose conditions of reinstatement.

6        (b) If a district court suspends a licensed paralegal practitioner's license to engage in the 7 practice of law, the court shall provide a copy of the order to the OPC.
