

1 Rule 14-413. CLE Accreditation for qualified audio and video presentations,
2 webcasts, computer interactive ~~telephonic~~ programs, writing, lecturing, teaching,
3 public service, and ~~live-verified~~ attendance.

4 (a) ~~Permissible Elective CLE credit. Self Study CLE Credit~~ Elective CLE credit will be
5 allowed for Accredited audio and video presentations, webcasts ~~or~~, computer 6 interactive ~~telephonic~~ programs, writing, lecturing, teaching, and service in accordance 7 with the following.

8 (1) One hour of ~~Self Study~~ Elective CLE credit will be allowed for viewing and/or 9 listening to 60 minutes of audio or video presentations, webcasts, or computer
10 interactive ~~telephonic~~ programs in accordance with Rule 14-408(a).

11 (2) Upon application to the Board, the Board may grant a waiver, permitting a 12 lawyer or paralegal practitioner on active status to obtain all required hours of credit
13 through ~~Self Study~~ Elective CLE, if the lawyer or paralegal practitioner:

14 (A) does not reside in Utah; and

15 (B) is engaged in full-time volunteer work for a religious or charitable 16 organization.

17 (b) ~~Writing and publishing an article. Self Study~~ Elective CLE is allowed for writing
18 and publishing an article in a legal periodical in accordance with the following.

19 (1) To be eligible for any credit, an article must:

20 (A) be written to address a lawyer audience;

21 (B) be at least 3,000 words in length;

22 (C) be published by a recognized publisher of legal material; and 23 (D) not be used in conjunction with a seminar.

24 (2) Three ~~Self Study~~ Elective CLE credit hours will be allowed for each 3,000 words
25 in the article. An application for Accreditation of the article must be submitted at 26 least 30 days prior to reporting the article for credit. Two or more authors may share 27 credit obtained pursuant to this paragraph in proportion to their contribution to the 28 article.

29 (c) Lecturing, teaching, or delivering a paper or speech at a meeting. ~~Self-Study~~
30 Elective CLE credit is allowed for lecturing in an Accredited CLE program, part-time 31 teaching by a lawyer or paralegal practitioner in an approved law school, or delivering 32 a paper or speech on a professional subject at a meeting primarily attended by lawyers, 33 paralegal practitioners, legal assistants, or law students in accordance with the 34 following.

35 (1) Lecturers in an Accredited CLE program and part-time teachers may receive 36 three hours of ~~Self-Study~~ Elective CLE credit for each hour spent in lecturing or 37 teaching as provided in Rule 14-409(a)(1), including participation in panel 38 discussions.

39 (2) Lecturers in a community outreach capacity, as described in Rule 14-409(a)(2), 40 may receive one hour of ~~Self-Study~~ Elective CLE credit for each hour spent in 41 lecturing or teaching provided such CLE credit does not exceed four hours for a
42 Compliance Cycle for a lawyer or two hours for a Compliance Cycle for a paralegal 43 practitioner.

44 (d) Full-time law school faculty members. Full-time law school faculty members may 45 receive ~~Self-Study~~ Elective CLE credit for lecturing and teaching, including 46 participating as a presenter in a panel discussion, but only for lecturing and teaching
47 Accredited CLE courses.

48 (e) Minimum Credit hours of Verified CLE. Credit is allowed for ~~Live-Verified~~ CLE in 49 accordance with Rule 14-408(a).

50 (1) A lawyer must obtain a minimum of six Accredited CLE hours, with no
51 maximum restriction, through Live-Verified CLE.

52 (2) A paralegal practitioner must obtain a minimum of three Accredited CLE hours,
53 with no maximum restriction, through ~~Live-Verified~~ CLE.

54 (f) Total allowable hours. The total of all hours allowable under paragraphs (a), (b), (c),
55 and (d) of this rule may not exceed six hours during a Compliance Cycle for a lawyer,
56 nor three hours during a Compliance Cycle for a paralegal practitioner.